

Shown doing the latest dance are (l-r) Kara Tucker, Teke Norwood, and Becky Hix.

All eyes are on Scott Haggard. Looking on are (l-r) Lisa Fielding, Kelley Creager, Sheryl Smith, Odis Marshall, and Kim Stroud.

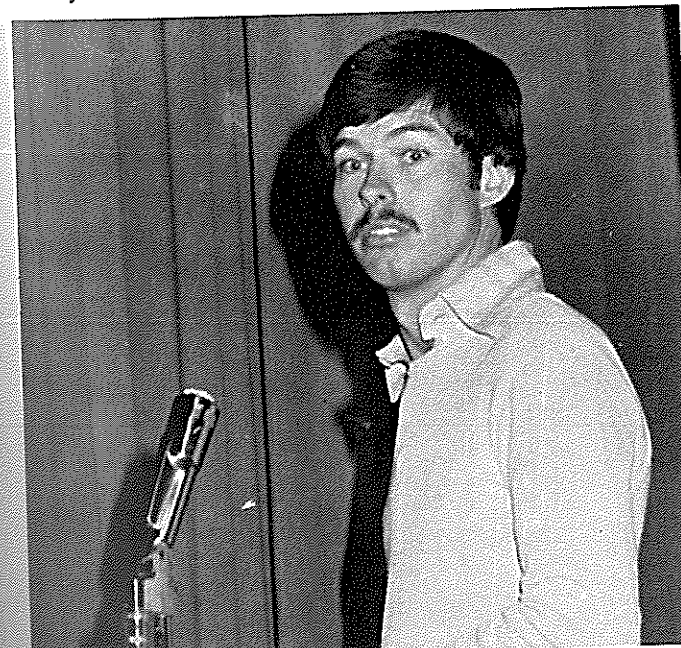

The Juniors show their talents at walking, (l-r) Odis Marshall, Kara Tucker, Lisa Fielding, Kelley Creager, Kim Stroud, Teke Norwood, Becky Hix, and Sheryl Smith.

Seniors Present Annual Class Play

The Senior Class of 1979 presented their annual senior play entitled, "Senior Night Live" and it was patterned after the highly successful TV show of a similar title. Members of the cast included FRONT ROW (l-r) Kay Hill, Melanie Helmer and Melissa Collins. SECOND ROW (l-r) Becky Brownlee, Paul Thompson, the dummy, Dub Dietrich, Mike Speed, Karla Thompson and Glenn Pitchford. THIRD ROW (l-r) Danita Gough, Dawn Edwards, Oralia Lujan and Evans Cooke, BACK ROW (l-r) Doug Fields, Sammy Hancock, Lisa Davis, Jimmy Jones, Kim Ray and Paula Price. Extras were Sharita Carter, Melanie Wood and Stephanie Morgan.

Mr. Michael McNabb

Members of the 1979 KHS Senior Class presented their version of a popular TV show, but entitled the play, "Senior Night Live."

The play depicted numerous KHS personalities, both faculty and students.

Included in the play was the cast, the "Not Ready For Public School Players" — a comedy troupe, and the "Daddy Rabbit Dancers."

The play was said to be one of most talked about in several years and was performed before a "packed-house."

The play was entirely written and choreographed with local talent and was under the direction of Mr. Michael McNabb.