eniorplayseniorp

Practice Seas

"Daddy Rabbit" dancers appearing in the 1979 KHS Senior Play, "Senior Night Live," included FRONT ROW (I-r) Melissa Collins, Lisa Davis, Oralia Lujan, Melanie Helmer and Karla Thompson. STANDING (I-r) Mike Speed, Doug Fields and Dub Dietrich. Not shown: Beverly Gillock and Linda Burns.

The "Not Ready For Public School Players" appearing in the senior play included FRONT ROW (l-r) Jimmy Jones, Doug Fields, Sammy Hancock, Kim Ray, Evans Cooke and Becky Brownlee. BACK ROW (l-r) Dawn Edwards, Paul Thompson, Kay Hill, Paula Price, Danita Gough and Glenn Pitchford.

One-Act Wins District

Members of the 1978-79 One Act Play are SEATED (l-r) Johnnie Jones, Lisa Fielding, and Tracey Connally. STANDING (l-r) are Scott Haggard, Melissa Collins, Tommy La Fon, Odis Marshall, John Kurtz, Kara Tucker, and Teke Norwood.

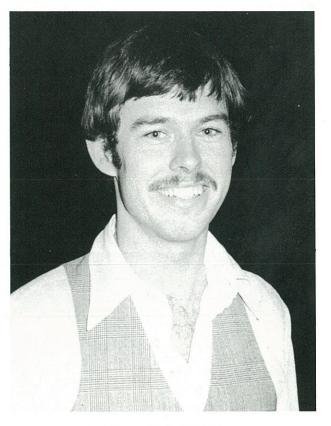

Under the direction of KHS Drama Coach and speech teacher Mr. Michael McNabb the 1979 One Act Play presented by Kermit students was named one of the two top plays in District

The play, "The Learned Ladies" won district 7-AA honors and then advanced to Area Competition.

Members of the cast receiving recognition for their outstanding performances were Scott Haggard, Johnnie Jones and Odis Marshall. All three received Honorable Mention.

The play featured a mother, Lisa Fielding, and her two daughters, Kara Tucker and Tracey Connally. In the production the mother attempted to guide the love life of her youngest daughter, but met with little success. In the end "true love" triumphed.

In District Haggard was named Best Actor and Kara and Johnnie were named to the All-Star cast.

Director Michael McNabb