Noseguard Mike Kilgore upends Lovington ballcarrier.

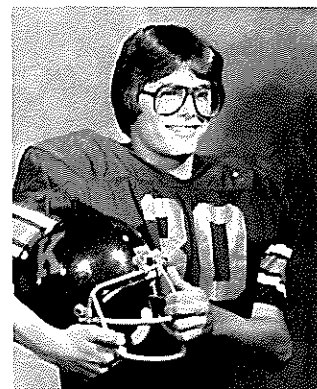

Good blocking against the Wildcats not only aided in extra points, but also on touchdowns.

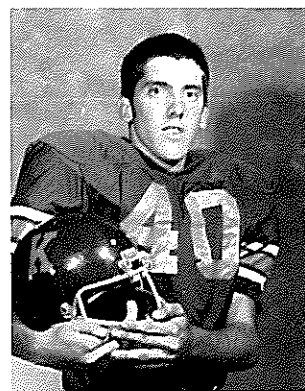

Kermit came out of the offensive slump in the home opener against Lovington as they blasted the Wildcats 35-0.

A tough Jacket defense caused the Wildcats to turn the ball over eight times during the game, four of them leading to Jacket touchdowns. Bobby Turner intercepted a pass and Shannon Cooke scored the first touchdown.

David Fulbright scored the next two Jacket touchdowns and then, after a Roland Bell fumble recovery, threw to Wes Davis for the fourth touchdown. Junior Jennings tacked the last touchdown up late in the game. Layne Nutt added each PAT.

Yellow Jacket fullback Shannon Cooke breaks into open field against Fort Stockton.

Sparked by the tough, hard-hitting Jacket defense, Kermit made it four in a row with a 14-0 shutout of the 3A Fort Stockton Panthers.

The game was a tough defensive battle for two and one-half quarters. The Jackets stopped Stockton deep in Kermit territory three times in the first half.

David Fulbright broke loose for a 58-yard TD gallop in the third period to give the jackets the lead. The Kermit defense made a heroic goal line stand in the last two minutes of the game. Lino Lujan then raced 75-yard for another TD. Layne Nutt added both PAT's.
