Jacket Netters Have Fantastic Year

Coach Tooke

The 1980 Yellow Jacket tennis team had a very successful and rewarding year. At the district tournament Kermit gathered in three championships, two runners-up, and one fourth place, while taking the team title.

In Lubbock, Jacket netters took home two championships, one runner-up, and one third place finish.

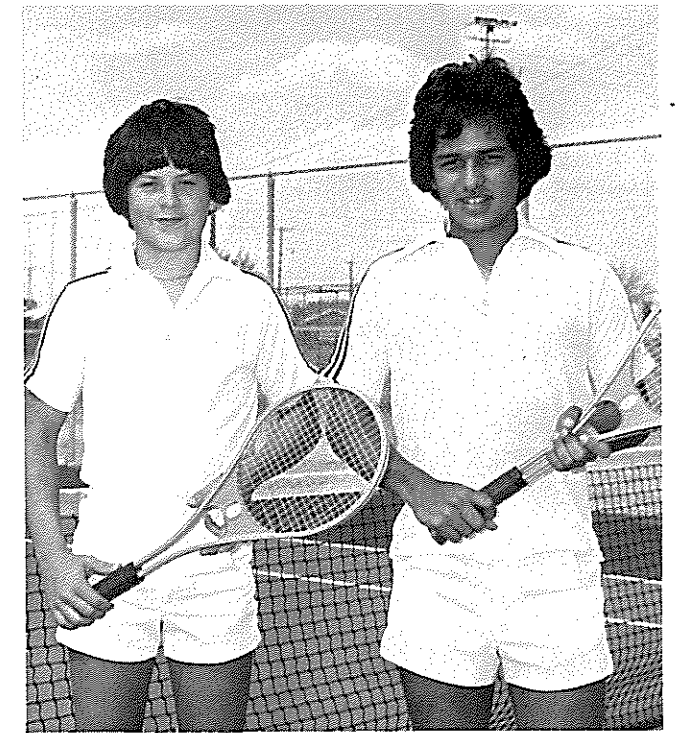

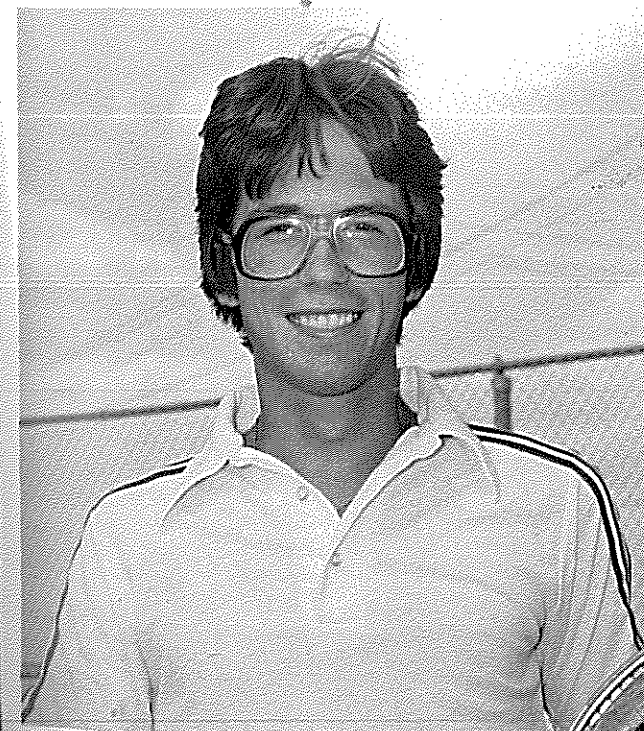

At Austin, the climax was reached when Scott Haggard and Tod Mitchell captured the AA State Doubles Title. Casey Karlik was a semi-finalist in the singles competition, while Staci Williams and Belinda Dominguez reached the quarterfinals before being defeated.

Scott And Tod Win AA State Title

Scott Haggard and Tod Mitchell won the 1980 AA State Doubles Championship. They also won the 7-AA and Regional Championships.

Casey Karlik won the District 7-AA and Region I tennis tournament and was a semi-finalist in the State Tournament in Austin.

Kermit's #2 team made up of Tommy La Fon and Alvaro Martinez (right) won 2nd place in the district tournament and reached the quarterfinals at the Region I Tournament.

James Stephenson competed as the Jacket's #2 singles player.
