

Jackets Attend Fall Sports Banquet

Texas Tech defensive line coach Bob Patterson was the principal speaker at the annual Fall sports Banquet held to honor the fall athletes.

Kermit Booster Club President Calvin Workmon (l) awards David Fulbright the Offensive Most Valuable Player award as chosen by the booster club members.

Shown leading the audience in the KHS school song at the conclusion of the Fall Sports Banquet are the members of the varsity cheerleading squad.

The Kermit Booster Club annually awards the Most Valuable Players of the varsity volleyball team. Chosen this year by the club were (l-r) Becky Hix, club president, Calvin Workmon, and Donna Parker.
