

Srs. Present Madwoman Of Challot

Drama Coach Vicki Pigmon

The seniors of KHS presented their annual class theatrical production of "Madwoman Of Challoot" to the immense enjoyment of hundreds of local and area students, parents and friends.

The play was performed on Dec. 14 under the guidance of KHS speech and drama coach Vicki Pigmon.

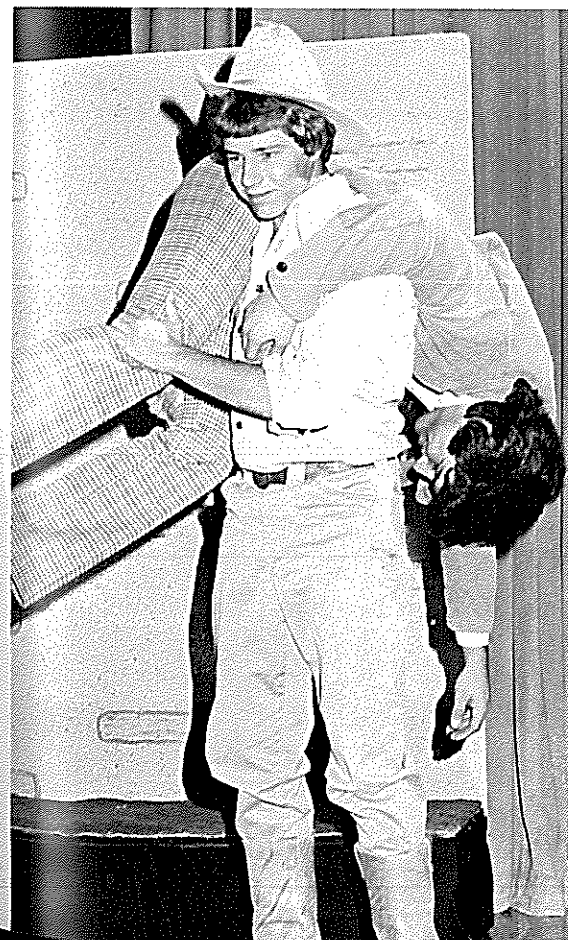

Also assisting in the production were members of the speech activities class, who gave technical help.

The play was an unqualified success in all areas — but especially in the area of giving total entertainment to the audience.

A policeman portrayed by Danny Berzoza tries to wake up a drunken Scott Haggard.

Jeff Davis, showing how strong he is, tries to carry Scott Haggard across the stage.

Odie Marshall tries to tell the whole truth and nothing but the truth.

Lisa Fielding tries to calm Kara Tucker down by her soft-spoken words of advice.
