

One Act Wins District

The One-Act Play Cast includes FRONT ROW (l-r) Lee Ann LaFon, Tommy LaFon, Mary Day, and Jana Taylor. SECOND ROW Johnnie Jones, Kenneth Arnold, Odis Marshall, Kim Stroud Teke Norwood. THIRD ROW Angela Peeler, Shamie Snedeker, Tim Kinnear, Mike Oldham, Tracy Michel, Doug Smith, Scott Haggard, and John Kurtz.

Director Vickie Pigmon.

The Cast of the One-Act Play "Requiem" performed the play in annual 7-AA district competition March 25 in Midland Theater. Requiem is, in brief, a war statement. It deals with man's feeling of life, death, and war . . . the waste and uselessness of war and the responsibility of those who fight it.

Johnnie is shown riding in her "rollercoaster" (coffin), while the family is watching. During the family outing which was intended to be a period of fun and happiness — DEATH in the form of Teke Norwood enters.

Tracey Connally as the mother is shown reflecting on the agonies of war.

These three members of the 1979-80 KHS One-Act Play entitled "Requiem" (L-R) Scott Haggard, Tommy LaFon, and Odis Marshall discuss the performance with their director Vicki Pigmon.

Teke Norwood representing DEATH announces war.

