

Cole Mitchell receives his diploma from K.I.S.D. board of trustees vice-president W. J. (Bill) Mitchell.

Corey Matheny give that graduation smile.

Retiring Superintendent D. M. Mayer turns the tassels of the graduates to signify to the world that each and every one is a high school graduate.

When graduation was over it was time to turn in the caps and gowns and hurry to the youth center for Ring Turning.

Seniors Enjoy 'Ring Turning'

At the parent-sponsored "ring-turning" ceremony, the graduates uphold a longtime tradition of dropping their pennies into the well and making a wish. Shown (l-r) making their wishes are Diane McKay, Bobby Turner, Oliver Brown, Denny McCombs and Mark Langston.

Senior civics instructor Bibby Parker turns Lisa Taylor's ring.

Bobby Coronado has his ring turned by Mr. Billy Parker