

Football, Volleyball Participants

The guest speaker for the 1980 Fall Sports Banquet was Richard Stecklein. The head football coach at the NM Military Institute discussed college athletics, life and the importance of academics for athletes.

Shannon Cooke and Roger Short are shown with the Coveted "Fighting Heart" Award.

Receiving annual football awards from 1980 Jacket gridiron Coach Earl Overton are Lendale Widner — Most Improved Player Award and David Fulbright — Most Valuable Player Award.

The Kermit Yellow Jacket Booster Club met in January to honor outstanding football and volleyball athletes.

After an outstanding meal prepared by members of the club, special awards were presented to both football and volleyball athletes.

Guest speaker Richard Stecklein of NMMI gave a brief, but inspiring address in which he urged all high school students to excel in academics as well as sports.

Are Honored At Fall Sports Banquet

Special volleyball awards were presented to three members of the 1980 Yellow Jacket volleyball squad. Coach McKenzie presented (l-r) Most Dedicated Player Award to Olisa Muniz, Most Improved Player Award to LaNell Rockwell and Most Valuable Player Award to Jackie Butler.

Yellow Jacket Booster Club President Clint Widner presented the annual Booster Club Awards to Deena Cates (left) and Jackie Butler.

