

Contents

|                                 |            |
|---------------------------------|------------|
| KHS People In The News   | 8   |
| Want Ads (Chosen Ones)   | 59  |
| Editors (Faculty-Admin.) | 73  |
| Sports                   | 83  |
| Entertainment            | 147 |
| KJHS People In The News  | 185 |
| KJHS Editors (Faculty)   | 215 |
| KJHS Sports              | 221 |
| KJHS Entertainment       | 237 |

Are these two really devils? No, not really Katie Brown (left) and Tracy Michel are just ready for a skit.

Is that really an ex-Slaton cheerleader or is that one of our famous coaches?

Junior High cheerleaders show their ability during a pre-game.

Sharon Parks gets ready for her senior picture.

Busy making a sign for homecoming activities were (l-r) Denise Lunsford, Kelley Pledger and ...

Boy, these two KHS students must have really had some night!

Helping boost spirits during a pep rally were the ever-present freshmen cheerleaders, Above are (l-r) Janene Wright and Debbie Campbell

The Freshmen? Well, They're learning the ropes. They know that each day will bring something new, whether it is yelling on the flag pole, playing air raid or becoming friends with a few more upper classmen.

What happens to the sophomores? They're no longer getting yelled at and told what to do by some "big, mean senior." Some enjoy the change. They are ready for some peace and quiet. While others wish they were still in the spotlight. Oh, but you will get your turn again!

Juniors realize that they are truly upperclassmen now and they are preparing to order their senior rings! Posters and displays are in the halls already. There is excitement in the air. This year will have many doors opening for the mighty juniors — there is the junior play, the junior prom and time to seriously begin thinking about the future.

And finally the SENIORS! Some are looking forward to that day in 1981, while most are having a hard time believing that they are finally seniors! Senior pictures are being taken, announcements are being ordered, cap & gowns are being ordered — all those final preparations to make for Graduation and ...

Marching into the gym prior to one of the district football games are (l-r) Donnie Armstrong, Doug Smith, Shannon Cooke, Earl Stanley and Lendale Widner.

