

KHS Spoils Crane Homecoming

It was an unhappy homecoming for Crane Friday night as the visiting Kermit Yellow Jackets thrashed the Golden Cranes 27-0 and raised their record to 5-0 with the victory.

Kermit took control of the game with two touchdowns in the first quarter as the stonewall Jacket defense turned in another excellent performance by holding the hapless Cranes to less than 80 yards total offense.

Crane has been totally dominated by the Yellow Jackets through the years, with the last Crane win coming in 1955.

During the Jacket/Crane clash, the Jackets display a fine offensive strategy.

Slaton Tigers Drop Kermit, 30-7

The Kermit Yellow Jackets lost their first game of the season Friday night as the host Slaton Tigers took full advantage of several Jacket mistakes to score a hard-fought 30-7 win. Kermit rushed for 151 yards and passed for 122. Slaton picked up 174 on the ground and 104 through the air. Total yardage for Slaton was 278, while Kermit picked up 273.

David Fulbright prepares to give a Slaton Tiger his "Best Shot".

Coahoma Bulldogs Edge Jackets, 14-6

A listless Kermit Yellow Jacket varsity lost their second game of the season in as many weeks as the more intense Coahoma Bulldogs surprised Kermit 14-6.

Kermit picked up 140 yards on the grounds while Coahoma managed 155.

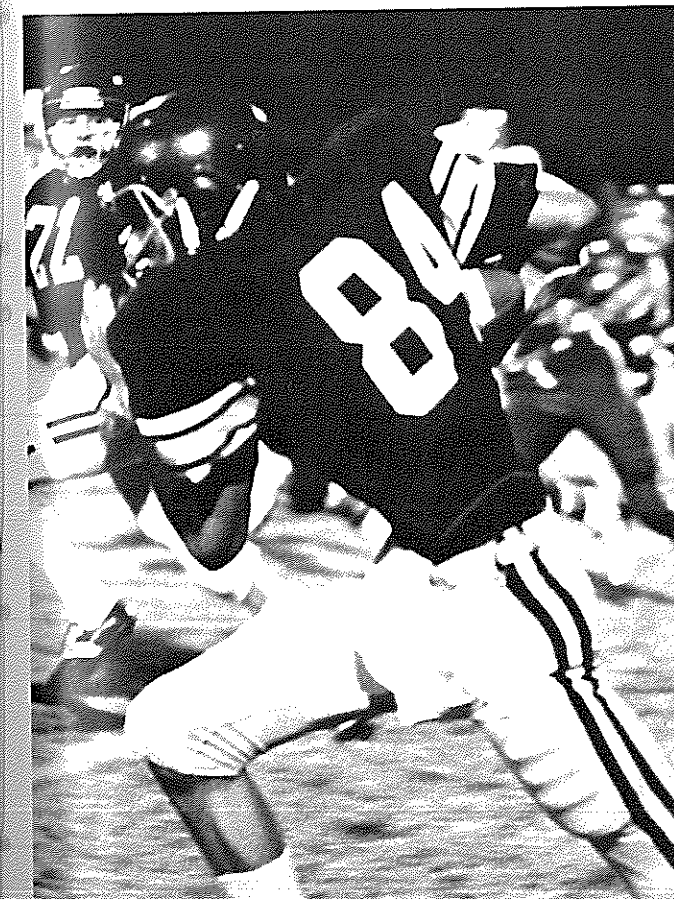

Coahoma had nine first downs, while Kermit had 13. They had four penetrations to the Jacket's one.

The big difference in the stats came on yards per play. Kermit managed a lowly 2.8 yards per play and Coahoma came away with 4.5.

Cooke finds an opening in the Coahoma Defensive line.

Wes Davis heads for the goal line after an interception against the Alpine Bucks.

Kermit, Alpine Battle To 14-14 Tie

Football fans may have thought they were viewing two different games Friday night at Walton Field with the home town Yellow Jackets winning the first 21-0, and the Alpine Bucks capturing the second 21-0.

But in reality, fans saw the Jackets and the Bucks open District 5-3A action with a 21-21 tie.

Both teams had ample opportunities to score additional points throughout the game, but turnovers and penalties held them back.