

LaNell Rockwell goes high in the air to spike the ball for another Yellow Jacket point.

The 1981-82 Varsity Volleyball team had a good year. They had a 20 and 10 season, losing their last game to Seminole in the Bi-District play-off.

Lead scorers for the district matches were Lori Fullen and Susie Bryant both won their first 4 games and lost their fifth one to the Fabens Wildcats. It was a long tough battle. In the next game, the Jackets beat the Canutillo Eagles. The girls represented the district with a 20 and 10 season.

They battled against the Seminole Maidens in Andrews for Bi-District and lost. The scores for that game were 10-15 Seminole, 16-14 Kermit, 2-15 Seminole.

One more dig for Susie Bryant as Lori Fullen stands in the background.

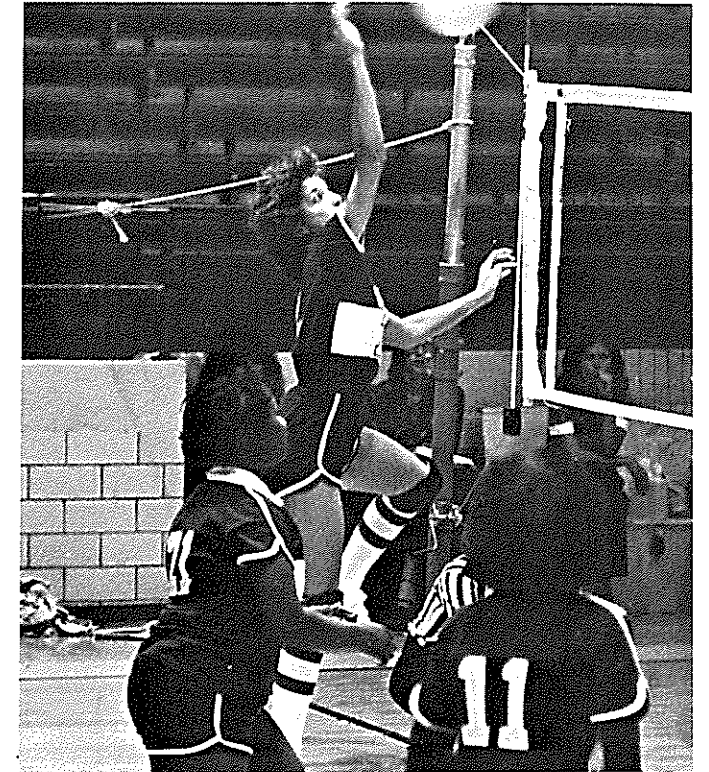

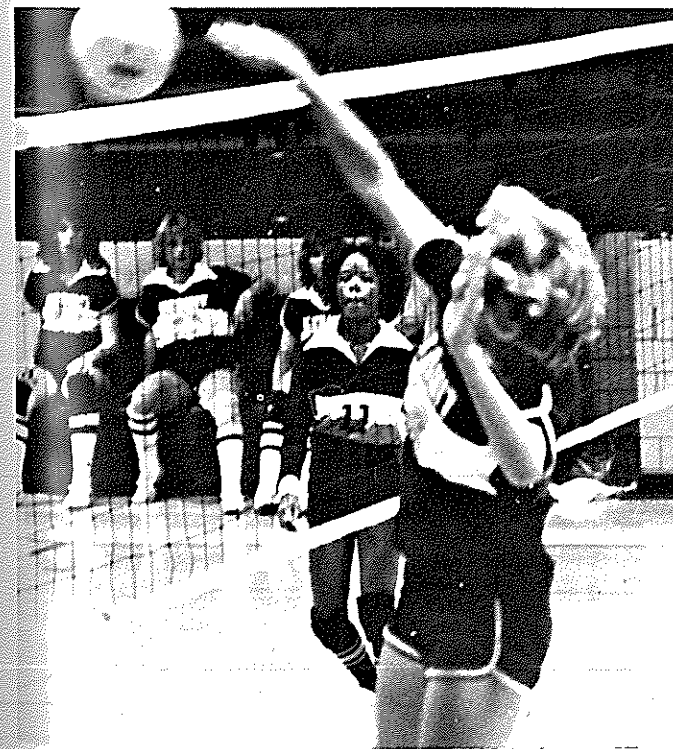

Margie Hernandez gets under the ball to set it up for another spike.
