

Two stepping to the country beat provided by the band are Mike Parks and Kim Sterling.

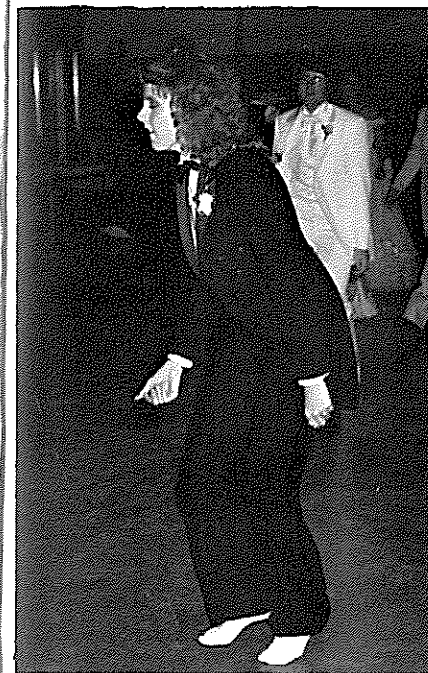

"Syrinx", the live band that provided the music for the prom played everything from Loverboy to Johnny Lee and Air Supply. Shown here are the lead singer and one of the band's guitarists.

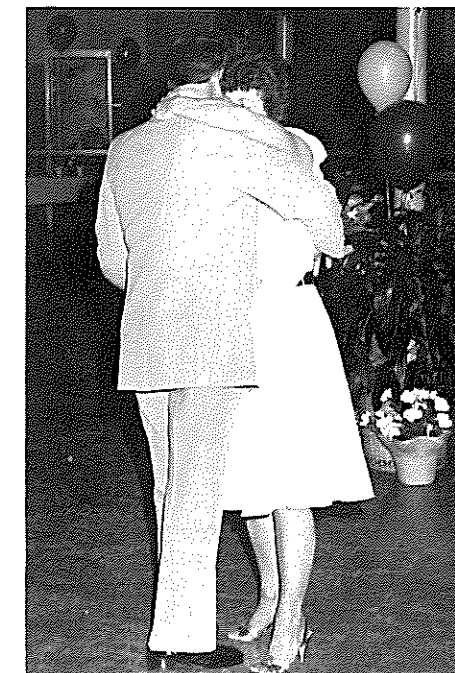

Dancing to a different beat provided by the live band are senior Marty Wood and her escort Gayland Richardson.

Traditional as well as modern came together that night as Dwain Horne demonstrated by wearing a tux and the ever-popular "van" shoes.

Dressed in her unique tuxedo attire, Shahn McGuire is jamming to the punk beat of the prom's live band.

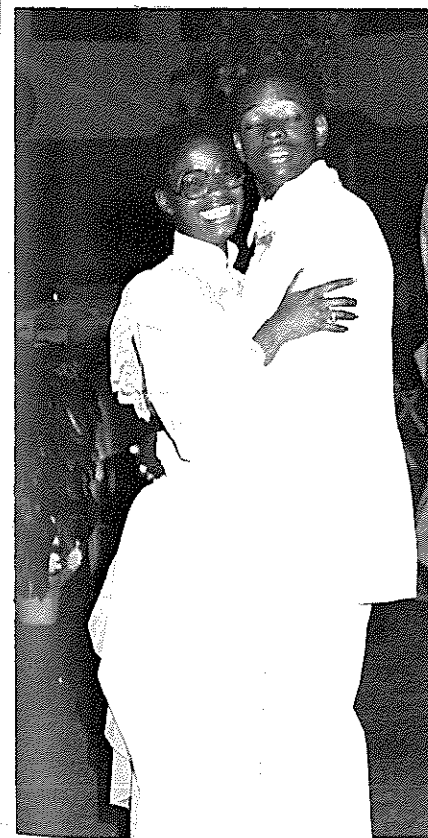

Even the teachers enjoyed the slow dancing that went on at the prom. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Marler are shown dancing cheek-to-cheek.

Happily gazing into each other's eyes are Tracie Thomas and Todd Henderson. They are only one of the many couples that attended the prom.

Mr. Cool, Rex Kilgore, and his date, Susan McGilbra, take the dance floor during one of the slow and romantic songs played that night.

Laughing with the great mood of the night, are Kelly Pledger and date Steve Williams. The relaxed atmosphere of the Hawaiian setting made everyone at the prom feel at ease.

