

School Friendships Are Highly Valued

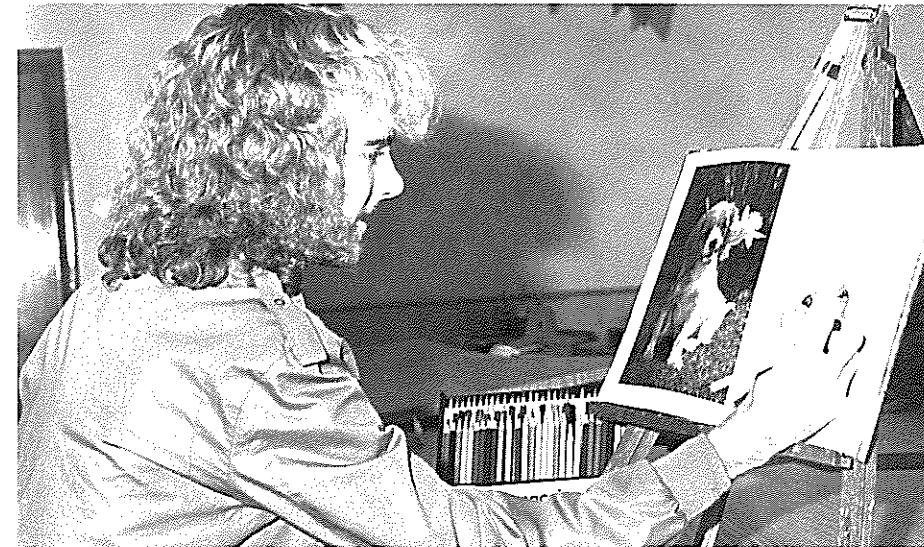

As the school year wore on and came closer and closer to completion, many class members began to realize the value of friendships created through the years. Here Connie Creager, Kirk Brewer and Kenneth Arnold relax for a few minutes prior to an assembly.

Teresa Lee takes advantage of a few quiet moments to go over contest material at the District 5-AAA UIL Literary meet held at the University of Texas Permian Basin.

Hobbies Make Life A Bit More Interesting

Timmy Mason is shown practicing art skills as he re-creates the picture of a puppy.

Yvonne Hernandez puts the finishing touches on another of her pastoral paintings in art class.

Lesla Anderson and Ricky Babb display the Winkler County 4-H banner as they appear in the annual Christmas Parade as part of the local 4-H youth.

Lori Flowers is hard at work during after-school hours.
