

Jackets Win District UIL Title

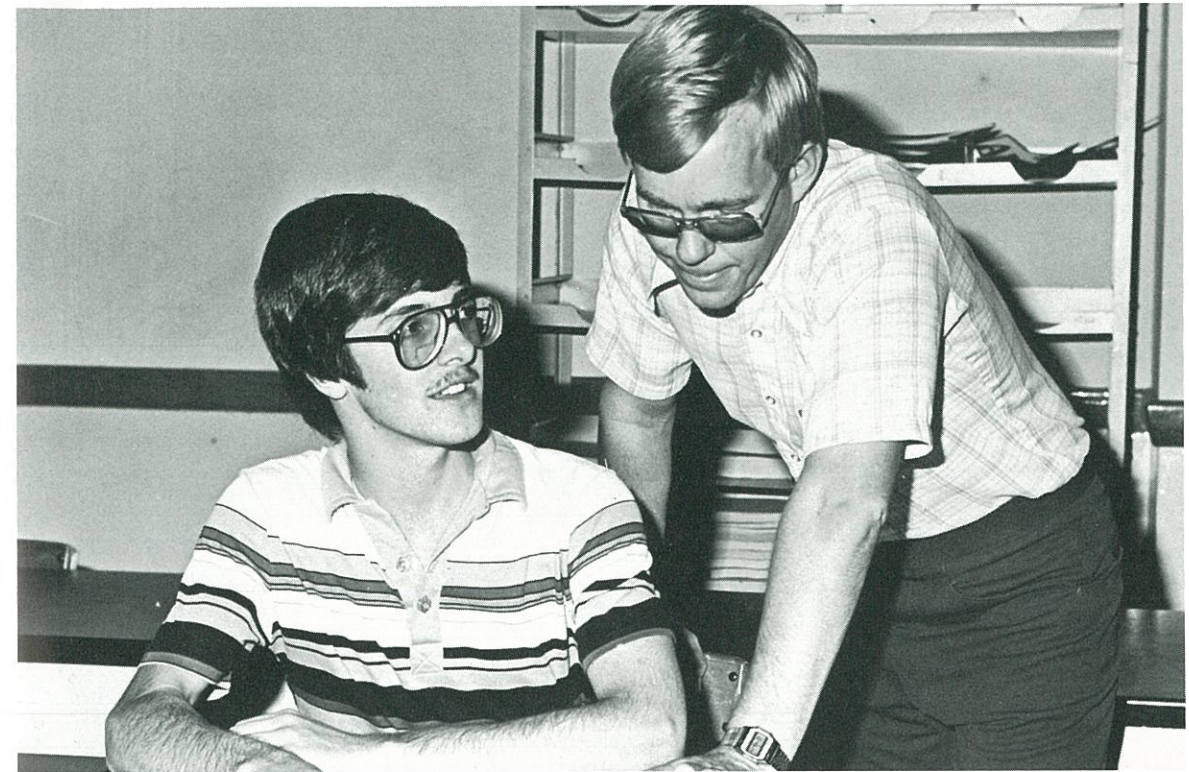

UIL students qualifying for the regional contest, after winning the District Championship, included FRONT ROW (l-r) Darla Smith — spelling, Melinda Hudson — spelling, Andrea Ditto — shorthand and number sense, Jamie Haston — ready writing, Janet Norris — shorthand, and Wendy Brister — typing. STANDING Brian Hindman — typing, Doug Cutrell — calculator and science, Kip Brewer — informative speaking, Kirk Brewer — persuasive speaking and John Lujan — headline writing and editorial writing. Not shown were John Simpson - prose interpretation, Mary Martinez — headline and news writing, Pm Hall — feature writing, Lisa Goodwin — editorial writing.

Calculator sponsor Kerry Franklin assists Doug Cutrell in preparing for the state meet.

Three Go To State Contest

Science advisor Gene "Doc" Hodges goes over science news with Doug Cutrell in preparation for the state UIL science contest. Doug placed second in state competition.

Shorthand instructor Diana Hampton and Andrea Ditto worked daily on shorthand to get ready for the state contest.

Advancing through district and regional competition to the state UIL spelling contest was Melinda Hudson. Melinda is shown going over the spelling list with sponsor Ilus Overton.

