

Tomorrow's Teachers ... Today

Sponsoring the KHS Future Teachers of America for 1983 is Mrs. Jennifer Anderson.

Officers for this year were front row (l-r) Melinda Hudson-pres., and Pam Hall-dist. chaplain. Back row (l-r) Yolanda Lares-photographer, Marsha Livingston-sec., Irene Jones, hist., and Mary Martinez, hist.

The G.E. (Tommy) Thompson Chapter of Future Teachers of America did many projects during the 1982-83 school year. These include, selling senior shirts, stuffed animals for Valentines, crystal, key chains, and spirit buttons.

Proceeds from these projects helped finance the trip to Dallas for the state convention. The District Convention was held in Seminole. Next year's convention will be in Kermit because Melinda Hudson is the District President.

The annual Christmas party was held at "Say Cheese," a popular eating place owned by Jerry Knight. The FTA scrapbook was submitted for competition, but was not recognized as one of the top books.

Participating in this year's Future Teachers of America activities and projects were (l-r) Lori Griffin, Teresa Dominguez, Yolanda Lares, Marsha Livingston, Sandy Burkhalter, and Julie Hill. Back Row (l-r) Craig Warren, Donna Kennelley, Melinda Hudson, Irene Jones, Tina Hudson, Pam Hall, Mary Martinez, Michele Clark, and Robert Boring. Not Shown are Michele James, Carrie Folmar, Bernetchia Solomon, and Connie Sullenger, who were student teachers.

FCA Works Together

Participating in the many activities of the Yellow Jacket FCA group were FRONT ROW (l-r) Shirley Prince, Kathy Livingston, T.J. Thomas, Todd Greer and Robert Kirby. MIDDLE ROW (l-r) President Wendy McKay, Ginger Reed, Girls Huddle Leader Sandy Burkhalter, Secretary Marsha Livingston, Donnie Elder, and Bruce Skinner. BACK ROW (l-r) Bit Eglund, Brian Hindman, Vice-President Kyle Clark, Lynn Fisher, President-elect Eric Hindman, Doug McKay and Roger Segars.

Busy, Busy, Busy! This year's Fellowship of Christian Athletes was as busy as usual, finding new and better ways of carrying out their goals.

In describing the goal for the 82-83 group, Coach J. E. Todd said, "It is a program to confront athletes, coaches and the youth of our nation with the challenge and adventures of following Christ, participating in His Church and serving Him through their vocations. Our purpose is to carry out this goal to everyone we reach in daily life."

Some of the activities of this year's group included weekly meetings, suppers with the Wink FCA group, activity nights, and a Mini-conference with the Texas Tech and Hardin-Simmons University FCA group.

Sponsors; (l-r) Coaches J.E Todd and Robert Highley.

Officers for FCA were; Doug McKay-Boys Huddle Leader, Sandy Burkhalter-Girls Huddle Leader, BACK ROW (l-r) Wendy McKay-Pres., Kyle Clark-Vice-Pres., Eric Hindman-Pres. Elect, and Marsha Livingston-Secretary.

