

Homecoming Before The Kickoff

During the week prior to Homecoming, many activities took place.

The varsity football players lockers were decorated by their girlfriends, special friends, and moms. The administrators, coaches, and football players had their colors pinned on by wives, cheerleaders, or girlfriends.

A new feature added in just the last few years is the decoration of football players' lockers. The lockers of (l-r) James Squiers, Jimmy Burleson, Kyle Clark, David Armstrong, and Rex Kilgore are shown here.

Working on one of the prize winning entries for this year's Homecoming sign Contest for the VICA club were (clockwise-background) Alan Walker, Joe Taylor, Vance Wade, Lonny Marshall, Steve Williams, Lena Fogle, Brendon Cole, Debbie Mitchell, Johnny Wendeborn, Brian Hall, and Kevin Tester.

The traditional pep rally speech was given by Julian Dawson, former KHS principal. An added attraction at the pep rally was the band rifles, flags, and twirlers. One of their specials was "We Got The Beat."

A record crowd arrived for the pep rally. Ex-KHS students came home from college for the memorous event. Four past HC queens returned, Chris Hall Shook, 1975; Kara Tucker, 1979; Linda Taylor, 1980; and Tonya Maness, 1981.

The freshman cheerleaders performed as football players: Krystal Maness, Wanda Adams, Sandy Fullen, and Priscilla Estorga. Cheering them on were Jackette members Sherry McDowell and Sharon Chavana.

The "Go-Go's" in Kermit?!? No just a few of the participants in a new Spirit day, introduced during the Homecoming activities this year, 'Punk Day'. Adding their own special touches to the day, and shown here are (l-r) Carrie Folmar, Sylvia Lopez, Suzanne Lackey, Lora Hillger, Pam Hall, and Christina Martinez.

These were just a part of the Punkers that came out during the day, with just a part of the attire used. Everything from the camouflage shirts and leg warmers to the skin shirts and mini-skirts. Overall, the student body showed a lot of interest the day --- after the initial shock!!!

Traditionally the color pinning ceremony is a symbol of the Yellow Jacket pride and courage; as well as honor the football players. Shown here as they listen to the guest speaker during the ceremony (l-r) Levis Awbrey, Kristi Norwood, Mike Muniz, Kathy Livingston, Lonny Allen, Ana Chavez, Leo Millian, Edna Pando, David Armstrong, Rhonda Pell, Danny Sludder, LaVonda Wade, Donny Elder, Marsha Livingston, and Kyle Clark.

".... And the winner is" They were all winners this year but only one could win the title of "Homecoming Queen". After the nominations were voted on by the football team and limited to the five finalists, the entire student body voted to name the winner. The Queen and her court were introduced to the crowd and school at the Homecoming Pep Rally Friday afternoon before the game against the El Paso Cathedral Fighting Irish. The 1982 Queen's Court consisted of (l-r) Misti Wright, Michele James, Suzanne Lackey-Queen, Lora Hillger, and Marty Wood.
