They Got The Beat

"S-p-ir-it, Spirit, Let's Hear It! This years Varsity, Junior Varsity and Freshman cheerleaders, kept the spirits high during the school year.

But, as the cheerleaders this year found out, cheerleaders' work is never finished. The cheerleaders this year were responsible for the spirit signs in the halls, planning the pep rallies, the spirit days, as well as cheering at the games.

After elections at the end of each year, a new cycle begins. The Varsity Cheerleaders started the year with a cheerleading camp at Texas Tech in Lubbock. After returning home the squad held a clinic to teach the new chants, yells, and stunts to the Jr. High, Fish. and J.V. squads.

During the year the cheerleaders yelled for the football, and the basketball teams as well as unofficially cheering the baseball teams on to victory.

Neither rain nor cold, or wind and darkness, (yes darkness — the lights went out at the Lovington basketball game!!) could stop the Jacket spirit, led of course by the cheerleaders.

Sponsor Judy Yett was very proud of all the squads "They all worked very hard, we had some set-backs, but they wanted to look different and better and they did."

Assisting the varsity and junior varsity cheerleaders and providing support for the freshman teams were FRONT ROW Wanda Adams and Pricilla Estorga, BACK ROW Sandy Fullen, Ana Chavez, and Joelle Wright.
