

Each year some seniors attending the annual Junior-Senior Prom seem destined to make the event more and more spectacular. At the 1984 yearend event, three couples arrived "really decked out." Above are (l-r) Todd Garner, Dwayne Forga and Kris Crawford modeling their attire.

The slow dances always attracted couples to the dance floor. Here, (l-r) Dwayne Horne and Brandi Brandenberg, Lesa Crouse and Gary Henderson, Tracy Henderson and Irene Jones and Bobby Jones and Susan Gough seem to be enjoying this dance.

Although much of the lives of local students did seem to center around KHS, sports, band and other school related events ... it was always possible to find something else to do. Above, making the KERMIT version of a totem pole are (from top) Steven Fierro, Dwayne Forga, Tamarra Smith, Lisa Crouse, Kim Payne and Brian Barrs.

Some activities aren't really hard to dream up — how about climbing on fire hydrants? Here are Rosa Trevizo, Ricky Nelson and Andrea Bentley.
