

7th Gridiron Crew Wins & Wins

The KJHS seventh grade Dauber Football squad put together another successful season, collecting five victories, one tie and three losses. Members of the squad include FRONT ROW (l-r) Sean Butler, Junior Fason, Mario Contreras, David Gomez, Alex Galindo, Junior Rodriguez, Danny Hernandez, Frankie Cordova, Michael Heredia, Rob Bannister, Brian Hallmark and mgr. Bill Riggs, SECOND ROW (l-r) Juan Martinez, Cliff Lewis, David Chacon, Rudy Flores, Saul Alvarado, Adam Carrasco, Quincy Hammond, George Lara, Timmy Cravens, Marcos Uranga, Denver Way, Frankie Nunez, Billy Ray Thompson and mgr. Richard Burkhalter, THIRD ROW (l-r) Daniel Adams, Saul Pando, Richard Ramos, Damon Jackson, Hector Lopez, Eddie Martinez, Armando Rivera, Marc Parks, Billy Barrick, Waylon Shockley, Corby Harbin, Wayne Mason and Phil Todd, TOP ROW (l-r) Eddie Ferrante, Alfonso Chavez, Benito Davila, Victor Muniz, Joe Chavez, Coach Gordon Oglesby, Bobby McMurrian, Dave Simon, Coach Gary Wolf, Brett Bentley, Martin Guardiola, Coach Mark Lesosky, Bobby Perez, Billy Nevels, Tommy McNabb, Lawrence Russell, Kevin Armstrong and Darin Field.

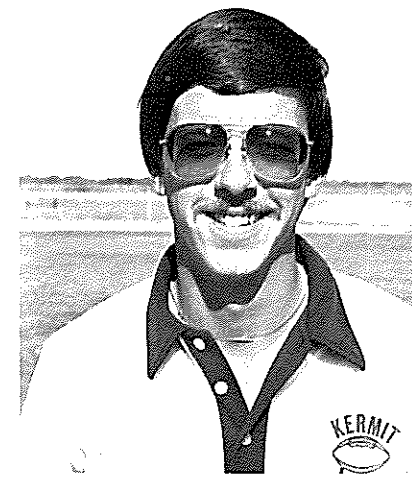

Dauber runningback Billy Ray Thompson scampers around, over and through the Seminole Little Indian defenders to set up another KJHS score.

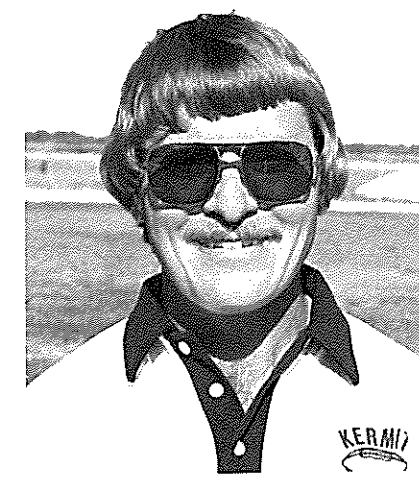

Evading another Ft. Stockton defensive back and rambling for one more Kermit touchdown is fullback (44) Marc Parks.

Shown adding another touchdown to the Dauber collection for 1983 is (20) Phil Todd.

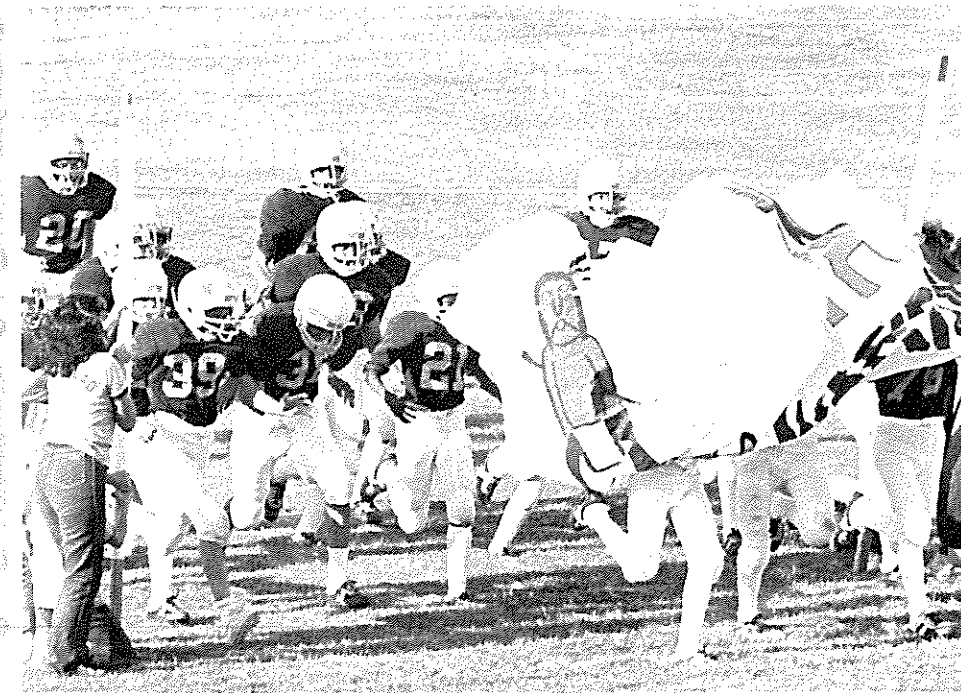

Coach Mark Lesosky

Coach Gordon Oglesby

Coach Gary Wolf

Entering the field for a victory and a massacre of the Seminole Little Indians is the 1983-84 Kermit Junior High seventh grade gridiron squad.