

8th Dauber Cagers Collect Wins

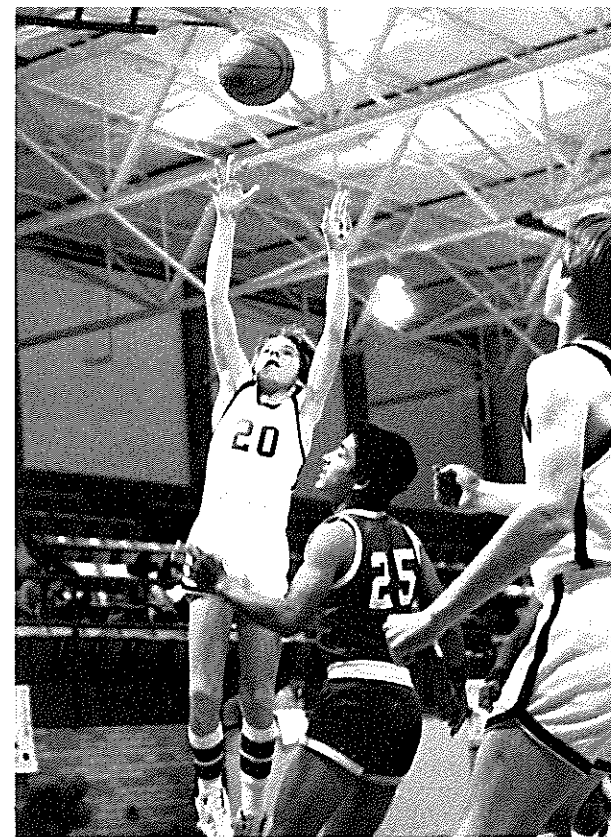

Under the guidance of Coach Billy Stevens the 1983 Dauber eighth grade basketball squad did not win all of their games, but did win the majority and had a very successful season. Members of the squad included FRONT ROW Robert (Scooter) McKenzie, Manuel Hernandez, Dickie Carrasco, Shannon Armstrong, Joel Garza and Lanny Neff. SECOND ROW Corey Bates, Lex Timmons, Jim Crouse, Lloyd Norwood, Reggie Gibson, Tony Pando, Edward Cutrell. STANDING Manuel Fierro, Matt Johnson, Jason Sharp, Mario Hernandez, Coach Billy Stevens, Corey Cates, Ron Gray, Brett Fostel and Rodney Berzoza.

Going up for a two-pointer is Dauber post (44) Jason Sharp, who made his presence known throughout the season.

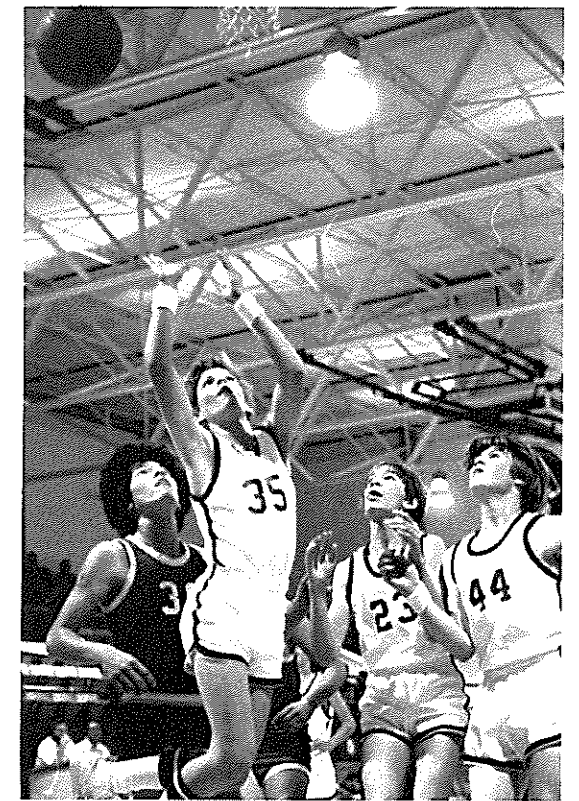

Working his way through the defense and shooting a two-point jump shot is (40) Matt Johnson.

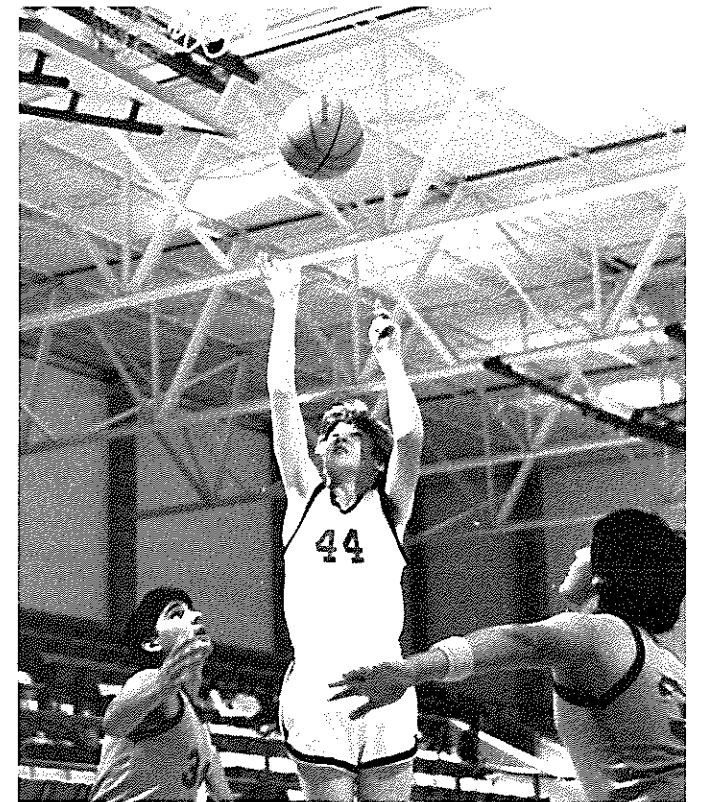

Adding another two points to the Kermit side of the scoreboard is eighth grade cager (20) Jim Crouse.

Reggie Gibson shows teammates how to go up for a two-point jump shot.

Kermit's Corey Bates drives down the baseline and puts up an uncontested lay-up.

After the Daubers worked their offensive plays and fed the ball to post (44) Jason Sharp — he pumps the ball through the hoop.
