

7th Cage Squad Sets 20-2 Record

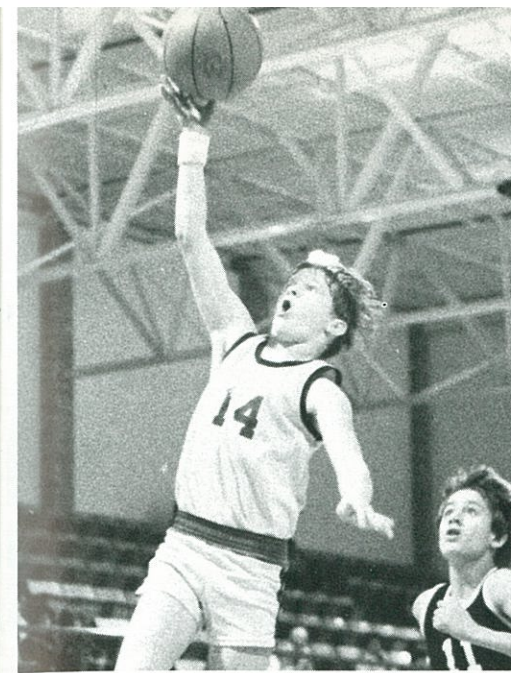

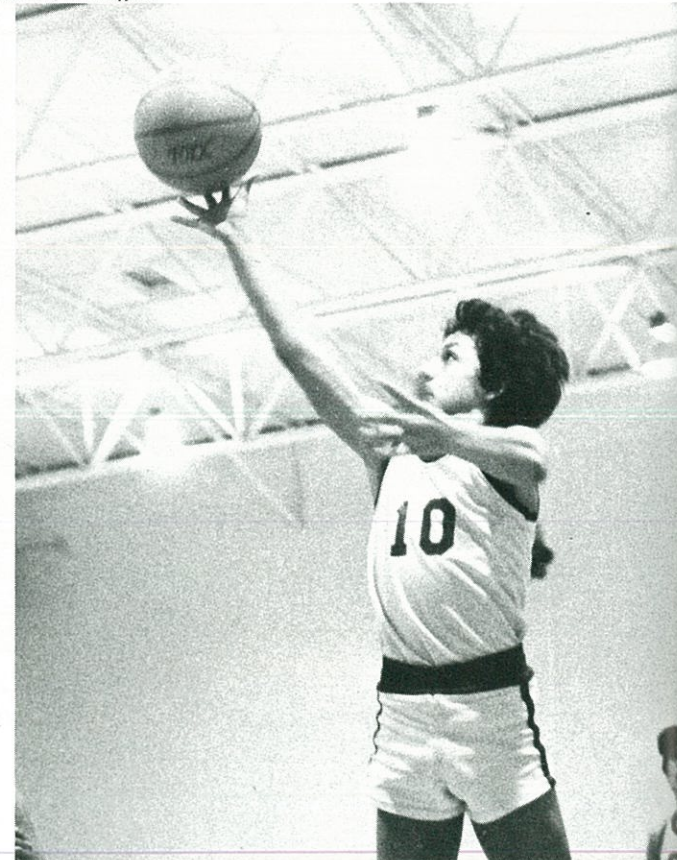

The KJHS seventh grade Dauber basketball squad put together one of the most successful seasons ever as they collected 20 victories and gave up only two losses. Playing on the squad for 1983 were FRONT ROW Junior Rodriguez, Frankie Nunez, Billy Thompson, Saul Alvarado, Michael Heredia, Frankie Cordova and Rob Bannister, manager. SECOND ROW Phil Todd, Adam Carrasco, Saul Pando, Sean Butler, Marcos Uranga, Les McGuire, Kevin Armstrong and Rudy Flores, manager. STANDING Billy Barrick, Waylon Shockley, Hector Lopez, Armando Rivera, Coach Mark Lesosky, Victor Muniz, Marc Parks, Richard Ramos and Corby Harbin, manager.

Victor Muniz uses a soft touch to let the ball roll into the basket after driving down the baseline.

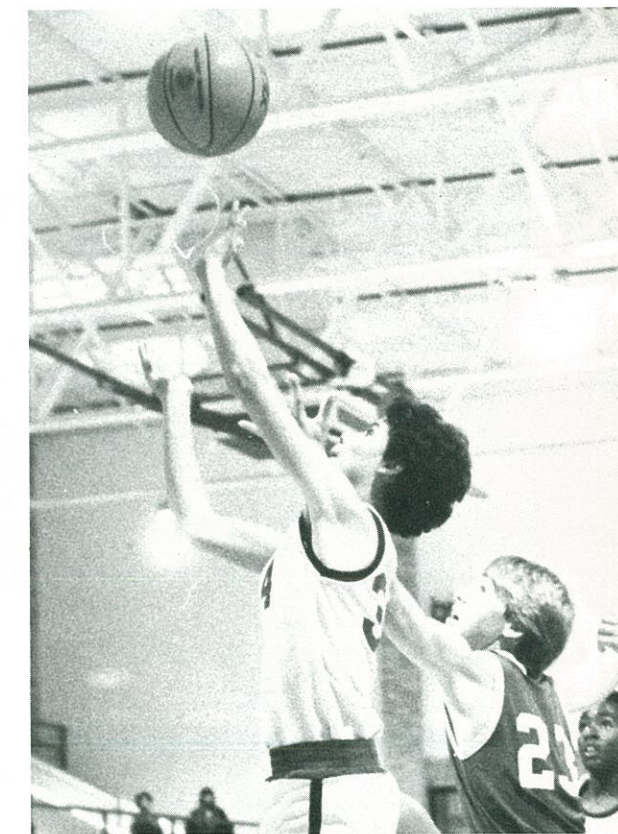

Frankie Cordova adds two points as the Daubers blast the Monahans Little Lobos.

Dauber Phil Todd out-maneuvers the man guarding him and goes in for a basket. Phil was the leading seventh grade scorer.

During halftime in the KJHS seventh grade tournament Coach Mark Lesosky gives instructions.

Guard Richard Ramos was one of the top three Dauber point-makers during 1983.

Forward Marc Parks (44) drives to the basket for two points as the Daubers blast the Alpine Little Bucks. Marc was the leading rebounder and one of the top three scorers in 1983.
