Members of the Freshman Class of 1984 had their hands full as the year began.

Not only did the freshmen have to learn their way around high school, they also had to find ways of satisfying their "upperclassmen."

After a few short weeks, the problems of being in a new school were gone, but not the other problems associated with being the lowest man on the totem pole.

During football season many "fish" wore spirit signs and after lunch there were several times the ninth graders could be seen crawling down senior hall. At other times the freshmen seemed awfully intent on cheering for the Seniors of 1984.

After performing as true Yellow Jackets, both on the field and court and in other endeavors, the freshmen were accepted and finally began to feel that they were an important part of school life.

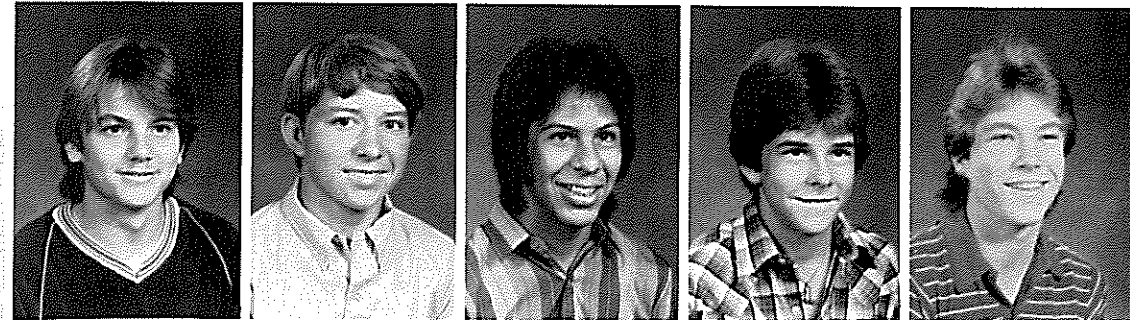

As the school year came to a close, it was often noted that the freshmen of '84 were making plans for the incoming freshmen of 1985 ... and the traditions of KHS continue ...
