

Cheerleaders Help Boost YJ Spirits

Newly elected members of the varsity Cheerleading Squad started preparing for the 1983-84 season by working hard and striving for perfection in their new cheers and stunts.

The varsity cheerleaders attended the National Cheerleading Camp at Texas Tech University during the summer. Each member of the KHS varsity squad received ribbons for their superior spirit display through out the clinic. Arcilia Carrasco, Janene Wright, Kellye Bates, Kathy Livingston, Debbie Campbell, and Gena Speed also received the spirit stick as a group the first day of camp.

The Varsity Cheerleading squad came back from National Cheerleading camp and started their own clinic with the Junior Varsity, Freshman, and Junior High teams as students. They taught them new cheers and stunts.

This year's J.V. squad consists of (l-r) Wanda Adams, Stacey Long, Drucinda Campbell, Joelle Wright, Wanda McMillan, and Krystal Maness.

Elected as Freshman Cheerleaders are (l-r) Norma Cordova, Sonia Rodriguez, Amy Hause, Amy Brownlee, Cory Chambers, and Maricela Martinez.

Pep Squad Works And Works And

Serving as officers for 1983-84 and giving direction to the Pep Squad included (l-r) Vice President Sandra Gomez, President Sharon Chavana and Secretary Sylvia Hernandez.

Pep Squad Sponsor Sally Kurtz

Members of the Pep Squad for 1984 include FRONT ROW (l-r) Elvia Trevizo, Sylvia Hernandez, Judy Escoveco, Sandra Gomez, Sheila Vasquez, Veronica Moralez and April Subia. SECOND ROW Lucy Olivas, Sharon Chavana, Sandra Rivera, Patsy Alvarez, Becky Pena, Becky Lopez, Janetta Stevens, Cynthia Pando, Irma Gonzales and Debbie Gonzales.

