

The 1983-84 Junior Olympics were again sponsored by the KHS Student Council. But, this year the Senior class pulled through for a first place position, disappointing the teachers, who had hoped to win for a second year.

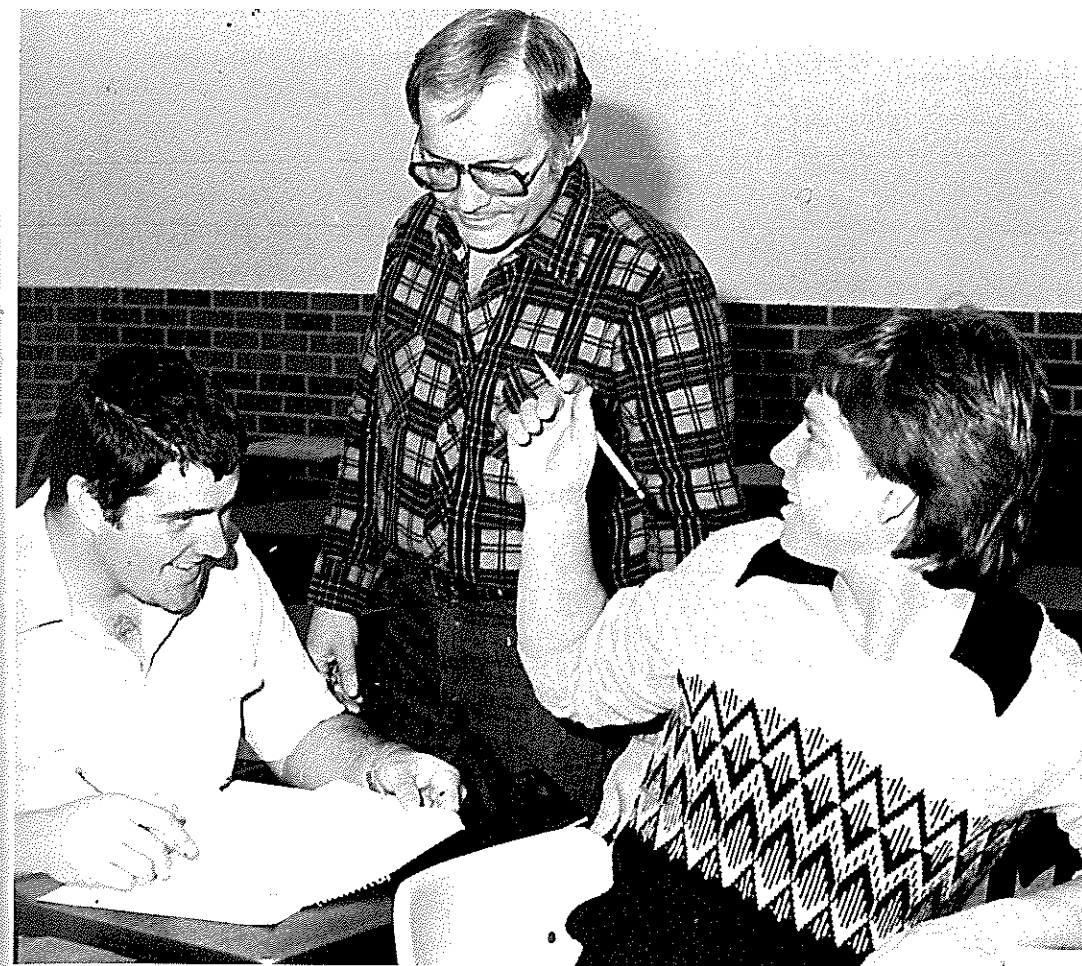

Although there seems never "to be anything to do in Kermit" students always want to take advantage of a little rest — making up for their always active night life.

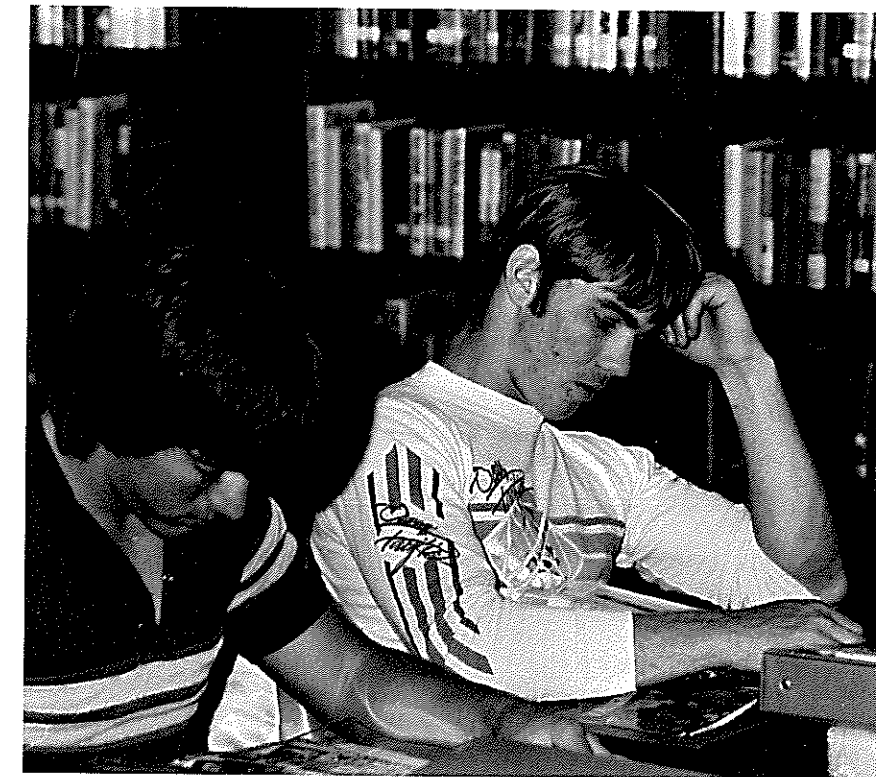

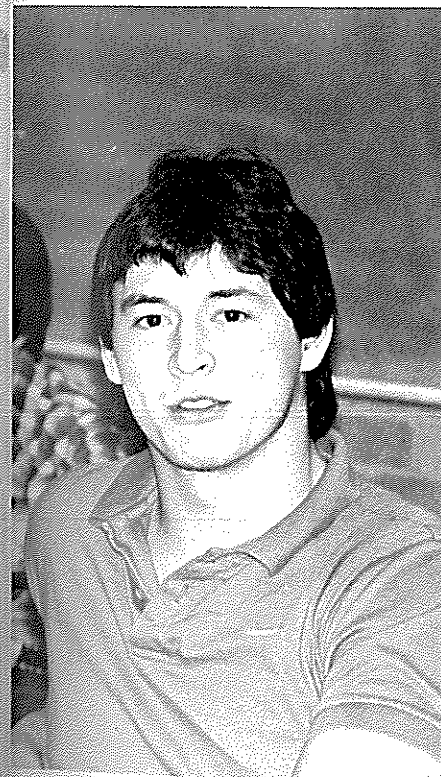

Seniors

Todd Garner and Kris Crawford inform Mr. Franklin of their vast knowledge on the subject of Chemistry.

Jerry Pendergrass gives the KHS photographer his innocent pose.

Scott Prather and Jim Sharp get a little relaxation in the library.
