Joe Lujan, senior.

Scott Prather, senior.

The Kermit varsity Yellow Jacket squad opened the 1983-84 gridiron season by invading the home field of the Coahoma Bulldogs and defeated the 'Dogs 8-0.

The two squads looked about the same in the number of first downs, but the Jackets gained a total of 203 yards, while holding the Bulldogs to 123.

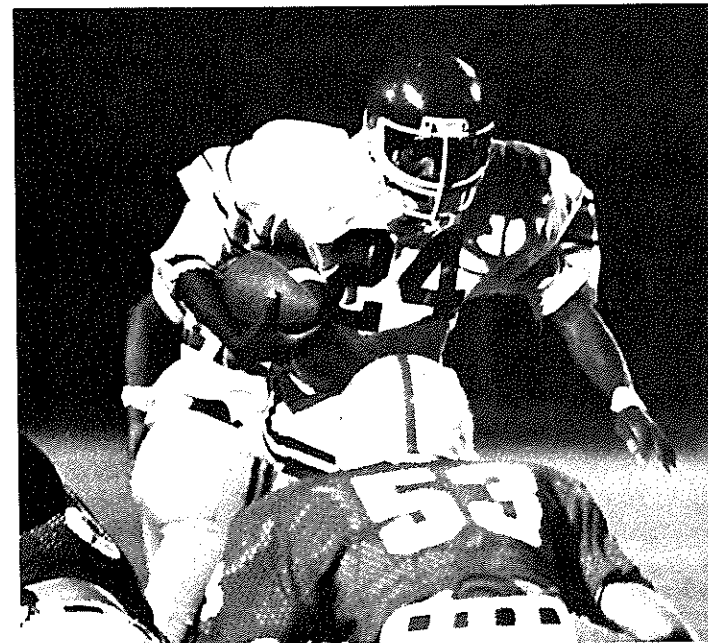

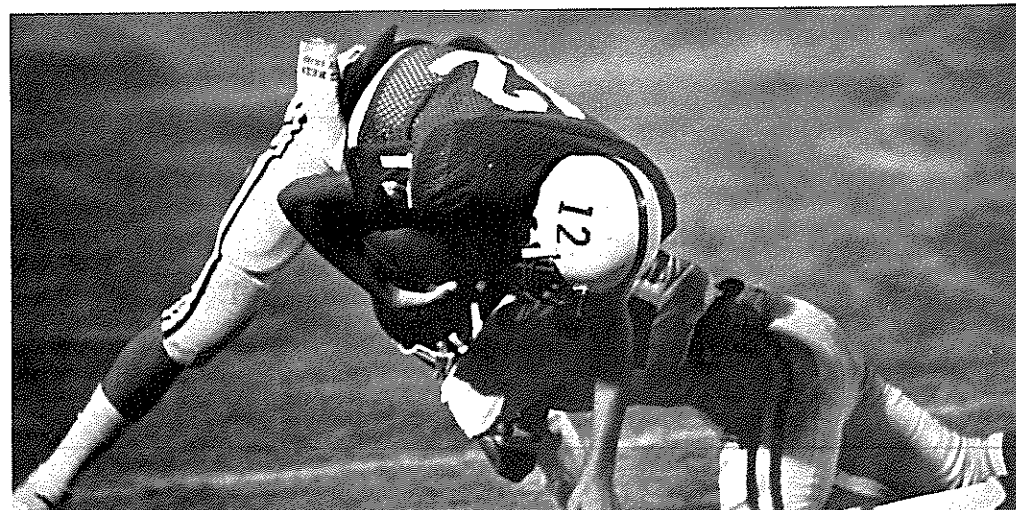

The Kermit squad got onto the scoreboard in the first period as a Jacket pass was intercepted and the Bulldogs set up shop on their 17-yard line. A stingy KHS defense held the 'Dogs and forced a punt, which was blocked by Jim Sharp and covered for a Kermit safety.

The Coahoma squad then had a free kick and booted the ball to the Jackets. The first play gained only two yards, but the next was a 62-yard pass to senior end Joe Lujan for a touchdown.

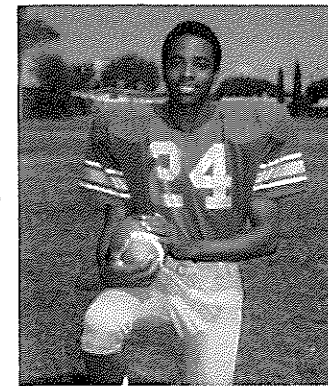

The Bulldogs later missed a fieldgoal attempt and senior Mike Parks intercepted a Coahoma pass to kill their hopes of scoring. Final: Kermit 8 — Coahoma 0.

KHS Nips Coahoma

Kermit noseguard Jim Sharp brings down the Coahoma quarterback in the backfield to thwart another Bulldog play.

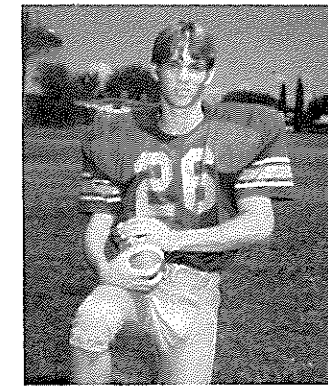

Jacket runningback Denel McIntire (24) uses his speed to out-manuever this Coahoma Bulldog linebacker. McIntire rushed for 42 yards.

Coby Owen, junior.

KHS QB Agmed Ramirez (12) keeps the pigskin and runs the option to gain one more first down and help set up another TD against the Denver City squad.

KHS end Danny Sluder pulls down the pigskin and then rambles down the field for another Kermit first down. The Yellow Jackets dropped the Mustangs of Denver City 20-6.

Mustangs Falter Before KHS Crew

Runningback Jim Sharp hurdles a fallen teammate and makes another good gain for the Jackets as they blast the Denver City Mustangs 20-6 in the second game of the season.
