Jackets Defeat Lovington, 13-6

The Lovington Wildcats came to Kermit on the Homecoming of the Yellow Jackets, only to find the KHS stingers ready for use. The two squads battled to a 0-0 first quarter, but then KHS took the lead 7-6 in the second period.

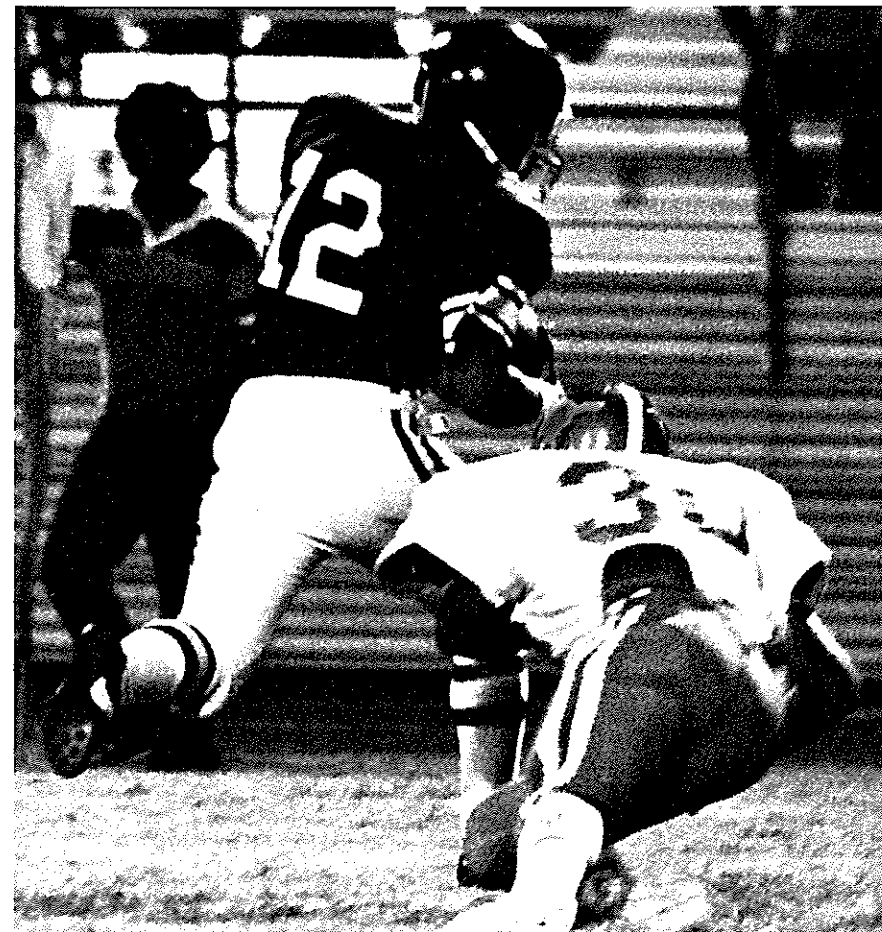

Kermit's first score came as QB Agmed Ramirez carried the pigskin into the endzone for the TD. Sergio Lujan booted the extra point.

Tom Carrasco scored the final TD of the game from three yards out.

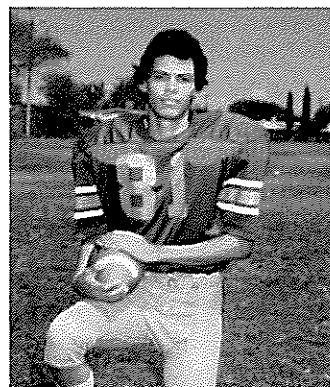

The leading ground-gainer for the KHS crew was James Nolley with 110 yards, Jim Sharp added 82, Carrasco collected 53, Ramirez picked up 12 and Oscar Morales had one.

Jerry Pendergrass blocked a Wildcat punt and Kris Crawford recovered a fumble.

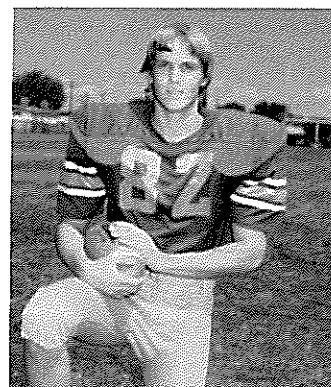

Overall, the Kermit unit had 277 yards and 16 first downs, while the Wildcats gained 92 yards and five first downs.

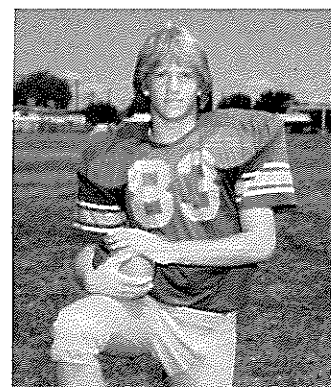

Jacket quarterback Agmed Ramirez successfully mixed offensive plays and then scored himself.
