

1983-84 Varsity Basketball Team

The KHS varsity cagers battled throughout the entire season, both winning and losing, but continuing to play with Yellow Jacket spirit and enthusiasm.

The team managed to overcome numerous problems and conflicts as well as injuries that took their toll.

On February 14, the Yellow Jackets challenged the Alpine Bucks and gave spectators a game that will long be remembered. Even though the KHS squad was out of the running for first place in District, a last-second victory over the Bucks gave the Jackets a tie for second and play-off hopes.

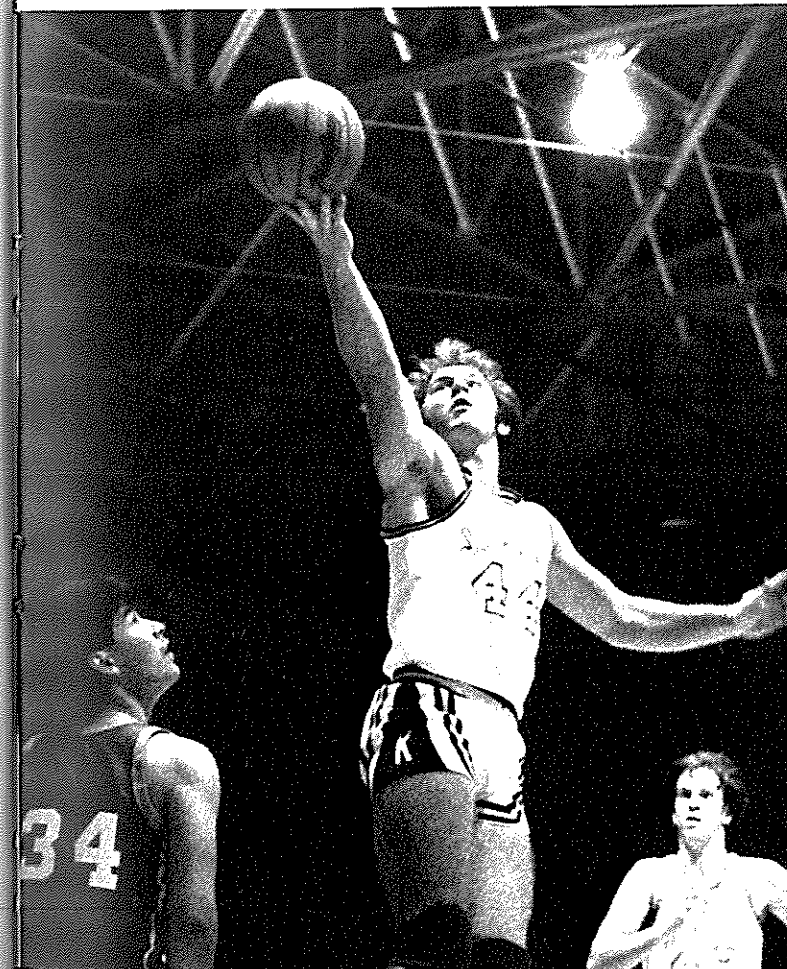

One of the first victories of the season for Kermit came against the AAAA Pecos Eagles. Chuck Moore goes in for a lay-up to help ice the win.

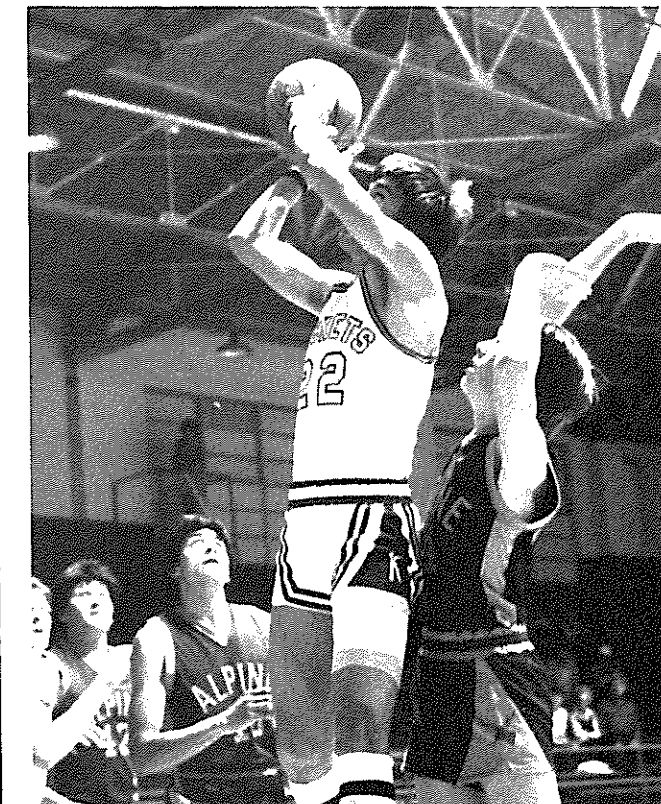

KHS senior guard Agmed Ramirez (33) races past all competition and places another two points on the Kermit side of the scoreboard.

Lynn Fisher (43) goes in for a lay-up even though the Monahans Loboes try to contain him. Lynn was high-point man for the Jacket-Lobo clash.

Jacket forward Mike Parks (44) uses a finger roll to add two more points to the Yellow Jacket score and help add another victory to the win column.

Going up for a bank shot is Kermit senior forward Brian Hill. The Alpine Bucks just could not hold him out.
