

1984-85 eighth grade Dauber basketball was a definite success as the A squad collected 12 victories and had four losses. The B team won two and lost three games. From the field, the squad shot 40% and added 53% from the line. Overall, the Daubers outscored their opponents 156 to 57. Members of the team included FRONT ROW manager Jeremy Jones, Frankie Nunez, Mike Heredia, Mark Mercer, Phil Todd and Les McGuire. SECOND ROW manager Tommy McNabb, Billy Nevels, Rudy Flores, Frankie Cordova, Sean Butler, Adam Carrasco, Saul Pando and Kevin Armstrong. STANDING manager Corby Harbin, Damon Jackson, Waylon Shockley, James Swisher, Hector Lopez, Marc Parks, Richard Ramos, Victor Muniz and Coach Billy Stevens.

8th Dauber Cagers Are Winners

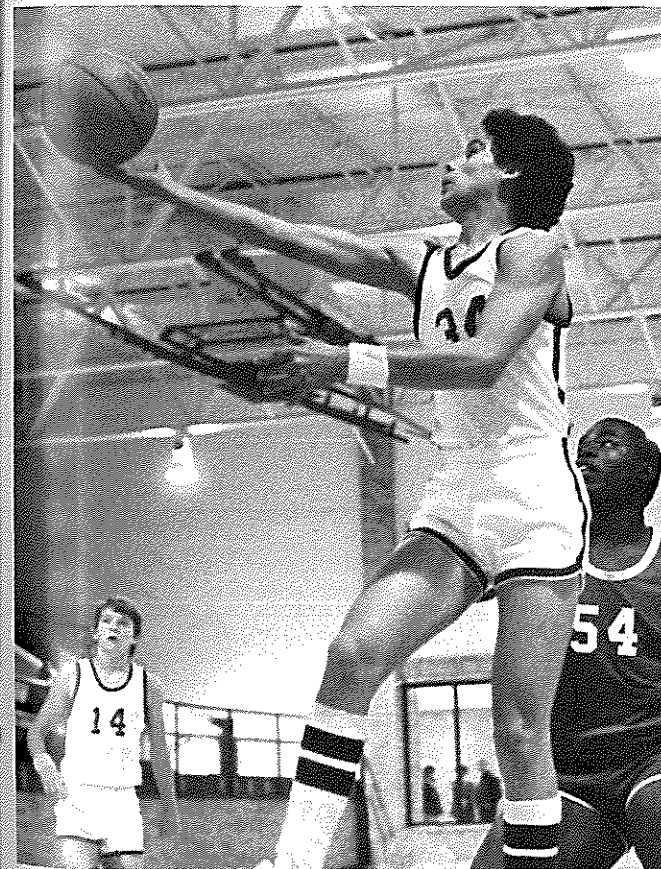

Marc Parks goes up for a three-point play as he is fouled on his jump shot. The Daubers held on to win over visiting Wink Wildkittens.

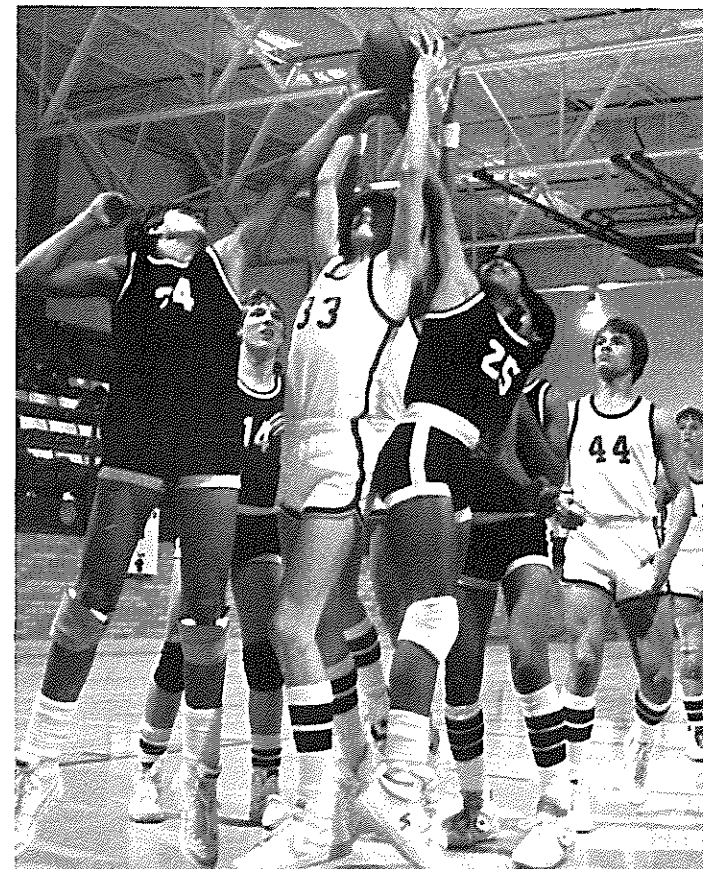

Going up for a two-point jump shot is Dauber cager Hector Lopez.

Phil Todd adds two more points to the eighth Dauber basketball score.

Speedy Richard Ramos drives down the baseline and goes up with a finger roll for two points against Pecos.

Battling for the rebound in heavy traffic is (33) Kermit's James Swisher.