

Each year girl friends go to great pains to decorate lockers of the varsity football players during Homecoming week.

One of the highlights of the annual Homecoming Pep Rally is the "pinning of the colors". Here, junior Kara Bullard is shown pinning on the colors of senior Monty Gunter (left) and junior Tina Hudson is pinning on the colors of senior Levis Awbrey.

Chosen for the category of Most Beautiful and Most Handsome for the '85 year were Randy Heath and Susan Gough.

Named Most Intellectual for the current poll were Teresa Lee and Kip Brewer.

Students Elect 1985 Personalities

As the 84-85 school year got into full swing, the traditional electing of students to the annual "Personality Poll" took place and the entire student body elected their favorites to the multitude of categories.

At the top of the list was Mr. and Miss KHS. Then came Most Intellectual, Most Beautiful, Most Athletic, Most Talented, Cutest Couple and Wittiest.

Elected to the position of Mr. and Miss KHS for 1985 were Coby Owen and Kellye Bates.
