Jackets Win 4-AAA District Title

KHS tight end Lang Bolf pulled in a 70-yard pass from QB Mike Muniz for Kermit's first TD in the Pecos scrimmage.

The Yellow Jacket gridiron squad wasn't ranked in any polls as the 1984 season began, but after defeating the Post Antelopes, the Jackets found themselves on just about all of the sports pages.

Before classes started for regular students, the Jackets were already hard at work sharpening their football skills. That practice and hard work really paid off as the Jackets won still another District 4-AAA Championship.

At the conclusion of the 1984 season, Coach Earl Overton had recorded a total of 60 KHS victories.
