

Throwing to one of his favorite receivers is KHS JV quarterback Mike Betcher, as the Jackets seek one more victory.

Taking advantage of an official time-out, Coach Gary Yoder and QB Mike Betcher discuss strategy for the next series of plays.

KHS fullback George Martinez picks his way through defensive players and proceeds to scamper for more than first down yardage as the Jackets collect another victory.

Behind the blocking of Freddie Carrasco, brother Abel Carrasco carries the pigskin for the Jackets and again ... Kermit first down.

End Troy Pinkston pulls in a pass and uses his strength to pull away from a Lovington defensive back.

In game after game, the Yellow Jacket junior varsity football squad tangled with all challengers and in the first four games collected nothing but points and victories. The only loss of the season came against the Pecos Eagles. Here, the JV is taking advantage of offensive line blocking to gain another first down before being tripped-up. Kermit won.
