

KHS Competes In UIL Literary Meet

Kermit High UIL contestants and sponsors making the trip to Fabens to compete in the 4-AAA Literary Meet include FRONT ROW Abel Carrasco, Daryle Galindo SECOND ROW Richard Mann, Amy Brownlee, Judith Gibson, Anjna Patel, Mary Sellars, Kara Bullard, Cheri Grover, Amy Weyant and Michelle Dehart. STANDING Mr. David Smith, Eugene 'Slim' Bailey, Mr. Dan Cooke, Mrs. Linda Vargas, Mrs. Connie Phillips, Lorina Davilla, Miss Vicki Pigmon, Mrs. Lee Lentz, Cristy Sims, Miss Diana Hampton, Darah Smith, Amy Hudson, Corinna Villegas, Reggie Gibson, Jeremy Harbough, Mickeal Lockwood, Shaun Fant, Sherri McDowell, Edward Cutrell, Randy Silhan, Lanny Neff, Damon Jackson, Mr. Gene Hodges and Julie Hill. Not Shown: Mr. Phil Parks.

The Kermit UIL Literary team won third place in the District 4-AAA Literary Meet in Fabens.

Winning first place honors for KHS in individual events were Kara Bullard — persuasive speaking, Sherri McDowell — feature writing, Amy Brownlee — headline writing, Jamie Morris — ready writing, Anjna Patel — spelling, Randy Silhan — typing.

Capturing second place medals for KHS were Mary Sellars — informative speaking, Kara Bullard — editorial writing, Sherri McDowell — headline writing, Jeremy Harbough — number sense, Lorena Davilla — typing.

Third place medals went to Edward Cutrell — prose, Margret Flores — ready writing, Sherri McDowell — shorthand.

Advancing to state from KHS and placing was Jamie Morris.

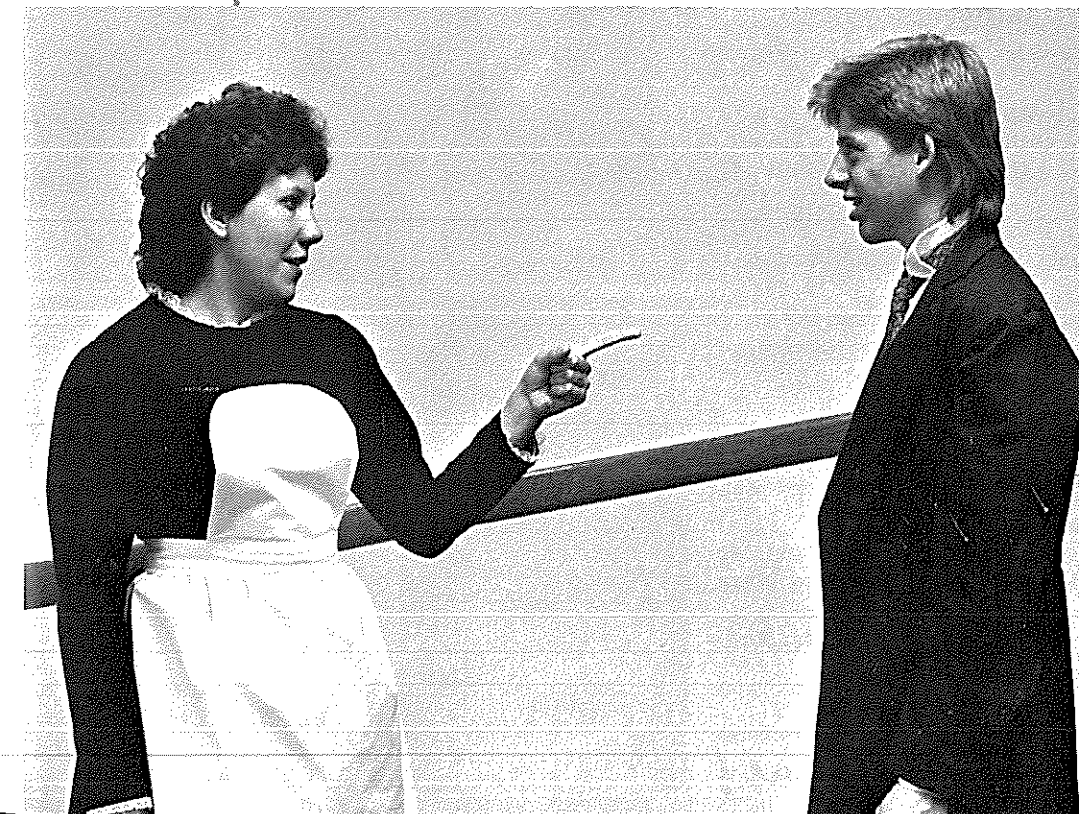

Abel Carrasco and Daryle Galindo prepare for their first round in debate. Giving advice and assurance is Sponsor Vicki Pigmon.

One Act Play Goes To Contest

The cast for the 1985-86 One-Act Play included. FRONT ROW Sarah Roberts, Mary Sellars, and Darah Smith. BACK ROW Jeremy Jones, Shaun Fant, and Edward Cutrell.

Looking back the laughs have been fun. We have been through good times & sad times but you have been a very special part of them both. You are one very special person. Stay great way.

Mary Sellars, as Helen, gives serious directions to Jeremy Jones, as Dr. Rank.