"A Doll's House", the 1986 Kermit High School one-act play, was a challenge for the KHS thespians. After weeks of work, the play came together and was presented in competition with plays from Alpine, Fabens, and Canutillo.

The El Paso area judge selected plays from both Fabens and Canutillo to advance to Area Competition. Both District and Area competition was held at KHS.

The Kermit play portrayed a young lady, who was forced to take destiny into her own hands, after being reared as a thing of "beauty and not brains".

Nora, Darah Smith, became aware that she had been deluded into marriage and realized that she had a greater duty to herself when the threat of blackmail became a reality. In a day when a woman was to be only a wife and mother, Nora stepped out and did what she saw as a greater role.

Nora (Darah Smith) won District Honorable mention, Torvald (Shaun Fant) won District All-Star Cast, and Krogstad (Edward Cutrell) also won District All-Star Cast.

Other cast members include Sarah Roberts as Christine, Jeremy Jones as Dr. Rank, and Mary Sellars as Helen.

Members of the crew include Jay Fields, Rodney Morris, and Leslie Loughmiller.

Leslie Loughmiller, Lisa Carlisle, Sarah Roberts, and Julie Hill really seem to have enjoyed their night at the Ball.

Are Cinderella (Lisa Carlisle) and Prince Charming (Keith Hathorn) really in love.

Krogstad, played by Edward Cutrell and Christine, played by Sarah Roberts, rekindle an old flame.

I hated this scene!
