

Singing "Beautiful, Beautiful Texas" and sewing on a magnificent quilt are CLOCKWISE Becky Pena, Gloria Chavez, Eloise Jones, Lorina Davila, Shannon Brown, Melissa Loughmiller, Darla Jones, Donna Thompson and Lori Watson.

"Celebrating Texas" was about the history and background of our great state. This play consisted of songs, slide presentations, and four narrators that all told about the heritage of this great state called Texas.

The original musical production was written especially for Kermit by Vicki Pigmon, Toni Helmer, Bill Barsch, and Patti Hathorn.

In addition to utilizing traditional Texas songs, the cast performed bits and pieces of the history of the state.

This All-School production was performed mainly to celebrate the Texas Sesquicentennial.

Shaun Fant is shown flirting with Eloise Jones.

1985-86 Student Council

Active in all areas of Kermit High School life during the 1985-86 school year were the members of the Student Council. FRONT ROW: Corina Dominguez, Margie Flores, Elvira Dominguez, Sarah Roberts, Amy Brownlee, Sara Lackey, Michelle Dehart; SECOND ROW Marla Dudley, Michael Langston, Cheri Grover, Shannon Brown, Gaby Trevizo, Maria Estrada, Manuel Fierro, Jessica Aranda, Anjna Patel, Leslie Loughmiller, Kent Ford; BACK ROW Corina Villegas, Richard Ramos, Tina Hudson, Roland Aranda, Mike Prince, Sean Moore, Bobby McMurrin, Darla Jones, Dan Michel, Jeff Brown and James Swisher.

Serving as officers and providing leadership for the Student Council for '86 were President Xavier Ramirez, Vice president Freddie Carrasco, Secretary Robert Kirby and Parliamentarian Dickie Carrasco.

The KHS Student Council not only represented local students in all areas of student activities at the local level but also at the Spring Forum. KHS won top honors for SMILE, Safety and Need.

Kermit was also named "Outstanding Student Council."

The Council sponsored annual events such as the Valentine Dance and the Homecoming Dance.

One annual event that enticed participation from freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors was the High School Bowl.

Another year long activity for the council included maintaining the new bulletin and announcement board at the school entrance. On the board were listed outstanding athletes and literary winners.

Student Council sponsors include Beth Manning, Herman Barrs, Janet Marler and Lee Lentz.