

Business

The 1985-86 Business classes have been busy working on several types of business activities. These classes are great advantages for people who plan to advance to businesses after they graduate. Business courses are often helpful not only later in life, but also in some high school and college coursework.

Diana Hampton
Account., shorthand, Per. Bus. Mgt., Advanced typing, Office Procedure

Lee Lentz
Typewriting, Economics, S.C., Coach

Janet Marler
Intro. Computer Prog., Business Data Proc.

Judy Day
Consumer math, F.O.M.

Eh? John McCune
Pre-Algebra, Trig, Elem. Anal.

Connie Phillips
Geometry, G/T Geometry, Algebra II

Math

Linda Vargas
Algebra I, Geometry

Is Sandi Fullen having as much trouble with the computer as it seems, or is she just trying to get help from her teacher?

Josette Bragg is really enjoying her dictaphone test in Office Procedures.

Mrs. Vargas is getting her point across to Shawn Wade.

Explaining Algebra II to the class is Mrs. Phillips.