One-Act Play: 'The Miracle Worker'

Kermit High School presented "The Miracle Worker" for its UIL One-Act Play. Those students who participated in the production included Becky Boman, Amy Hudson, Darah Smith, Michelle Dehart, Edward Cutrell, Darin Field and Shawn Wade.

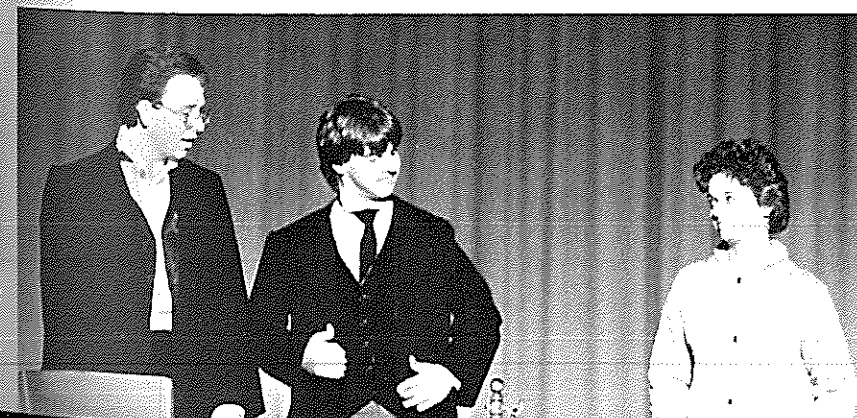

Directing "The Miracle Worker" was Miss Vicki Pigmon.

Miss Sullivan (Amy Hudson) attempts to teach Helen Keller (Michelle Dehart) to spell and communicate with her own hands.

Mrs. Keller (Darah Smith) talks sweetly to the baby only moments before she realized Helen was blind and deaf.

The doctor (Shawn Wade) tells Mr. and Mrs. Keller (Edward Cutrell and Darah Smith) that Helen is deaf and blind.
