

7th Dauber Squad Learns Gridiron Skills

The KJHS Fighting Dauber seventh grade gridiron unit was under the direction of Coaches Gordon Oglesby and Mark Lesosky during the 1986 season and the beginning football players learned the fundamentals. Members of the team include manager Andy Hause, Gabriel Rodriguez, Frank Purcell, Lionel Lujan, Ismael Cobos, Chris Orozco, Lee Hamrick and Geno Montes SECOND ROW Eric Dominguez, Chris Martinez, Mike Shropshire, Juan Salcido, Cody Dehart, Darin Carrasco, Bobby Love and Coby Purcell THIRD ROW Victor Alvarado, Javier Bonilla, Alex Pando, Jeremy Garcia, Lael Ramirez, Brian Mobley, Kevin Mann and Brian Swisher BACK ROW Coach Oglesby, Chris Jamison, Patrick Dawson, Clay Fostel, Luis Chavez, Jason Blake, Javier Orona, Dennis Bliss and Coach Lesosky.

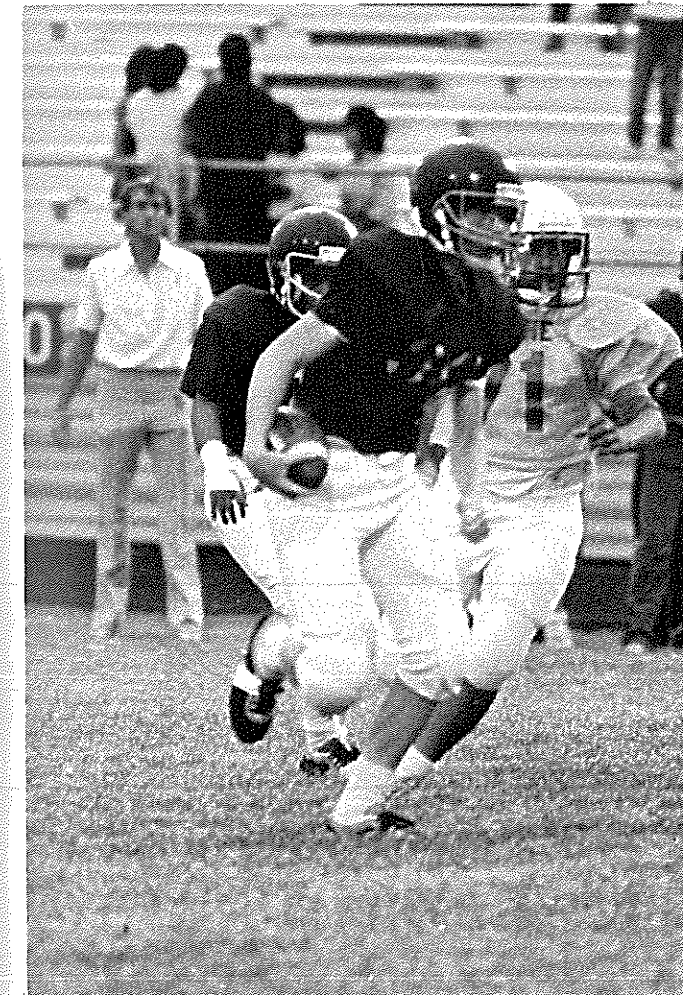

Coaching the seventh grade Dauber football squad were Coach Gordon Oglesby (left) and Coach Mark Lesosky.

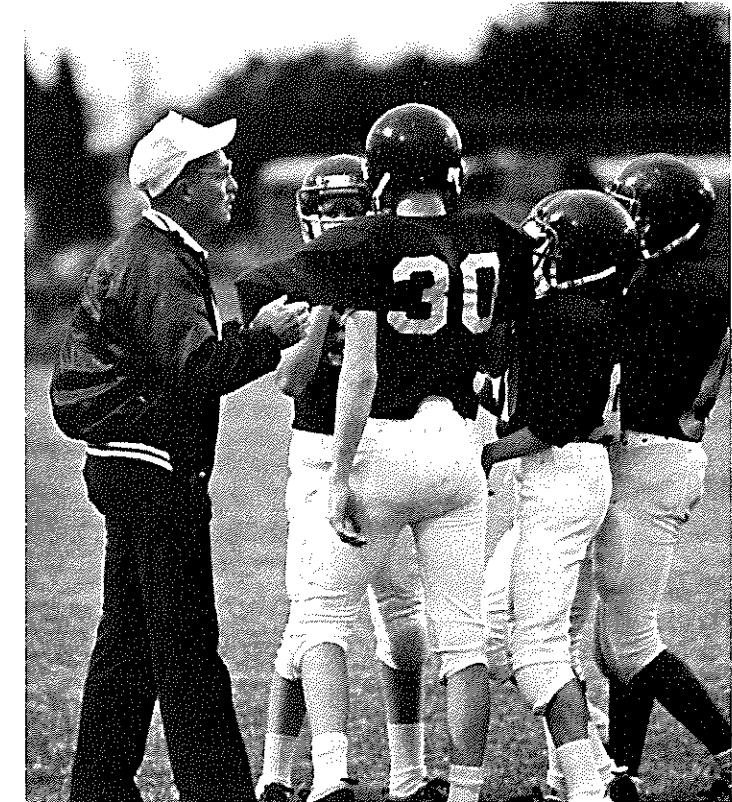

Running a lead play and making yardage against the visiting Little Alpine Bucks are fullback Bobby Riley and Lael Ramirez.

The Dauber's "Refrigerator", Patrick Dawson, carries the ball across the goal line for another touchdown against the Little Cranes.

Running for another first down and setting up still another touchdown for the Daubers is runningback Jason Blake.

Using a time-out to advantage, Coach Gordon Oglesby gives instructions to the starting offensive unit of the seventh gridiron squad.