

Dauber Boys Play The Net

The seventh grade Dauber boys' doubles team of Chris Martinez and Brian Swisher were always in contention.

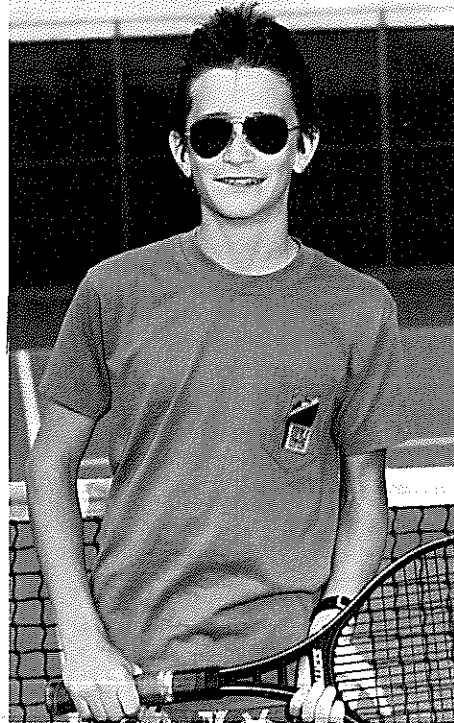

The KJHS boys' tennis team won two tournaments during the 1987 season. Members of the squad are Bobby Love, Brian Swisher, Timothy Bowden, Chris Martinez, and Gino Montes. Not shown: Chris Carlisle.

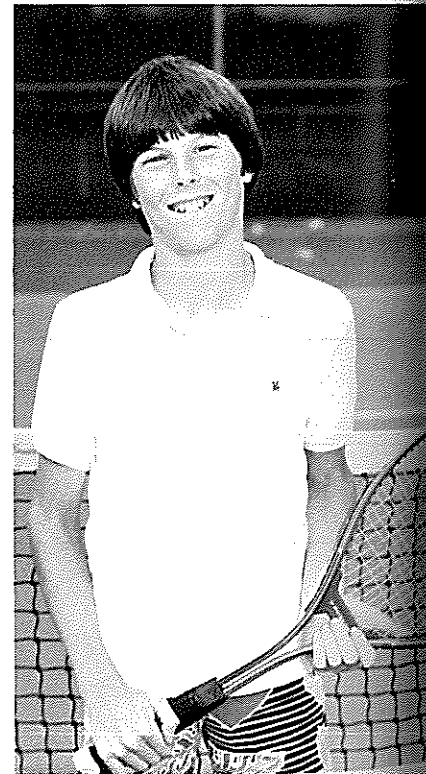

Chris Carlisle and Timothy Bowden make up the eighth grade boys' doubles team.

Coaching both boys and girls in the Dauber tennis program was Coach Mark Lesosky.

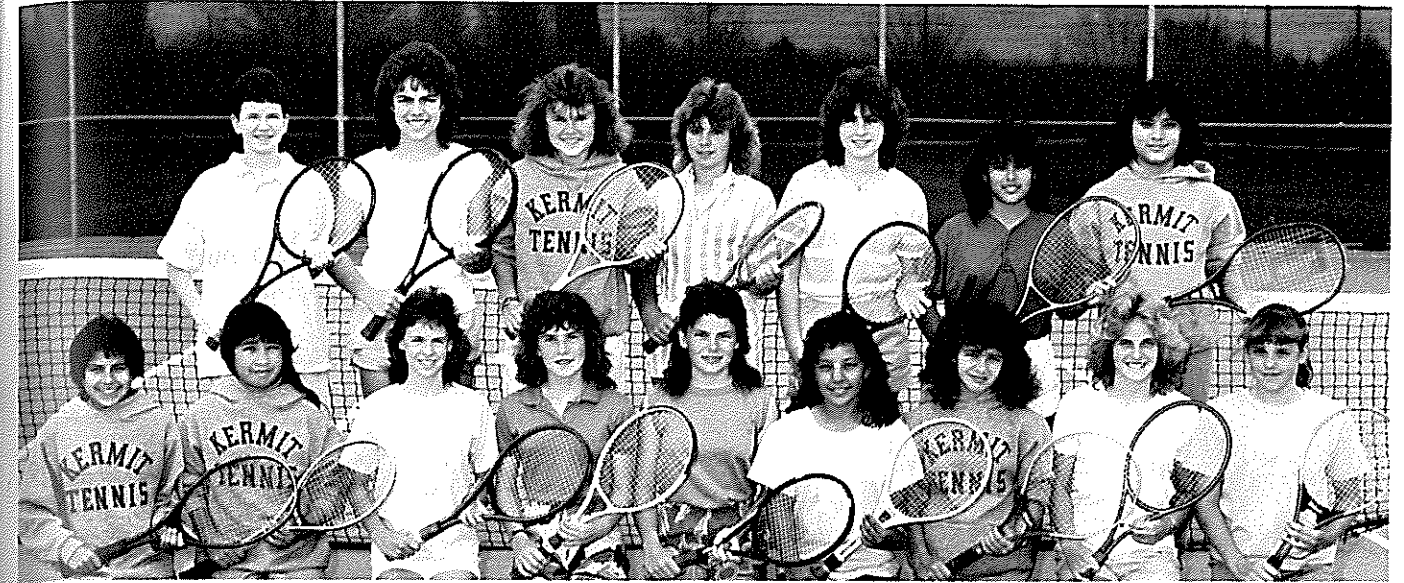

The eighth grade boys' singles player was Timothy Bowden.

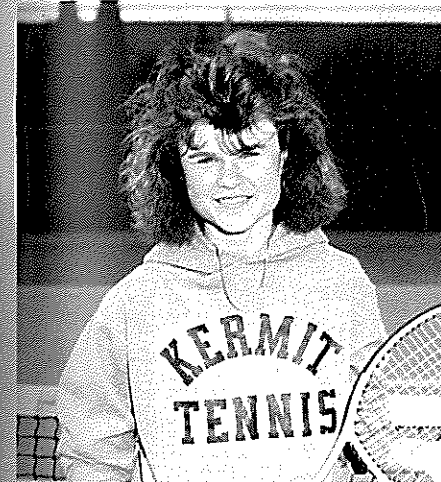

Brian Swisher represented the Dauber tennis program in singles play.

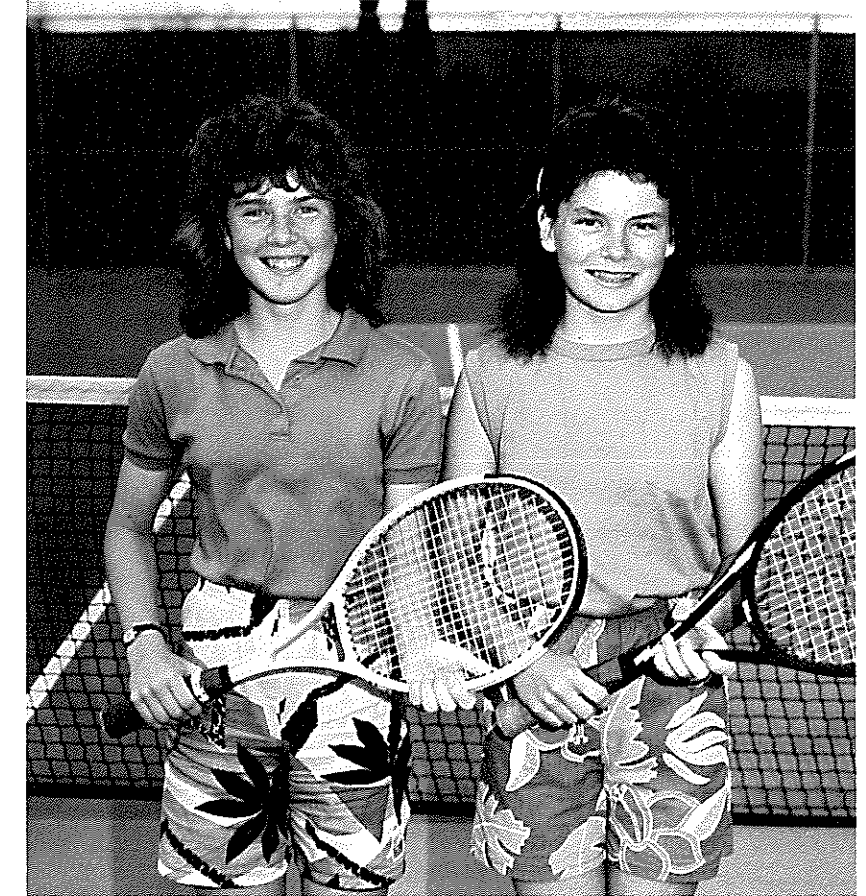

Dauber Girls Hit The Courts

Winning two tournaments in the 1987 season were the KJHS girls' tennis team. Members of the team are FRONT ROW Rosa Munoz, Mayra Mendiaz, Melissa Beard, Stephanie Neff, Leslie Hager, Debra Heredia, Billie Willard, Clary Cutrell and Jennifer Ramos. BACK ROW Leah Edes, Angel Shaffer, Melanie Neff, Angela Shoptaugh, Dai Ann Knight, Mandy Carrasco and Tanya Medina.

Melanie Neff was ranked the number one eighth grade girls' singles player on the KJHS tennis team.

Stephanie Neff and Leslie Hager went undefeated as a doubles team and to add to the success, Leslie Hager had the best record with thirteen wins and four losses in seventh grade girls' singles.

Top seeded girl in girls' seventh grade singles is Stephanie Neff.