

Varsity Girls Place 3rd In 4-AAA

Practicing and playing in all forms of weather and wind were these members of the Kermit High Yellow Jacket varsity girls' golf team. On the squad were senior Amy Brownlee, junior Lori Knight, junior Darla Jones and freshman Robin Crouse.

Robin Crouse feels confident about her next move to put the ball in the hole.

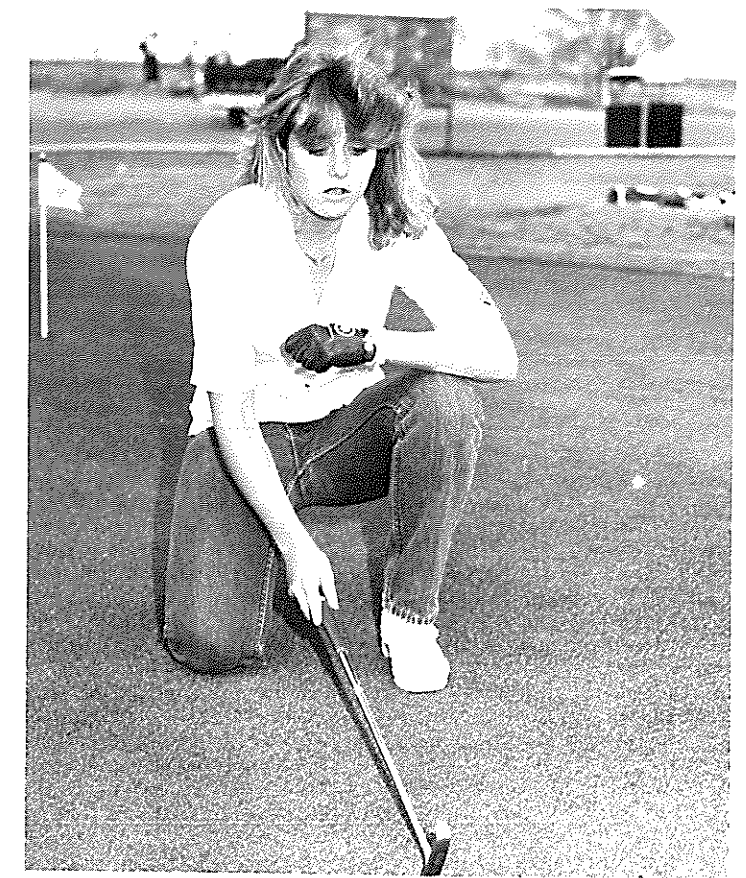

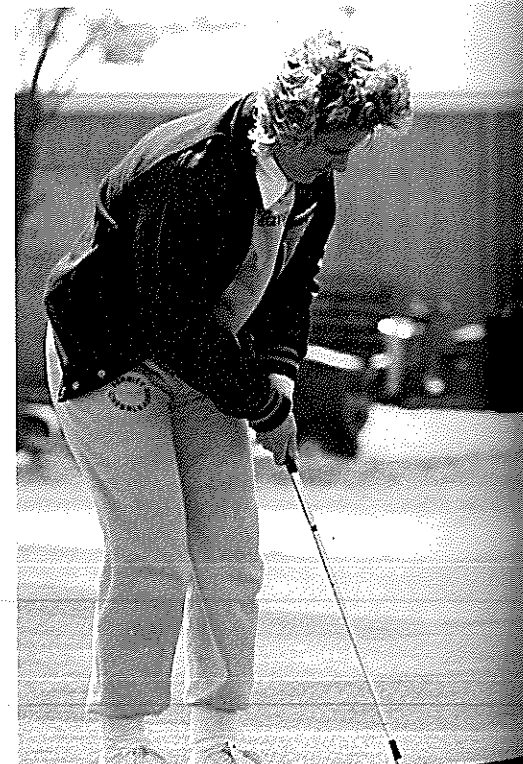

Senior golfer Amy Brownlee works on her putting prior to the district golf tourney in Alpine.

Senior Amy Brownlee is bundled-up against the cold and 60-mile per hour wind during the Kermit Tournament.

Boy! These girls don't seem to mind relaxing for a few moments during practice. On the cart are Darla Jones, Robin Crouse, Lori Knight and Amy Brownlee.

Working on the practice putting green is junior golfer Darla Jones.

Preparing to putt is junior golfer Lori Knight. Lori is a two-year varsity lettersman.