

The Year Of 1987-88 At Kermit High

Keeping up with the 'Ole KHS tradition, seniors used the freshmen to their own advantage — day-after-day, the freshmen were seen dodging left and right as they ran down senior hall.

As the year progressed, many of the seniors and freshmen became good friends ... in spite of air raid drills and crawling down senior hall on hands and knees ...

The year of 1987-88 proved to be the "Year of the Unexpected." Out of the ordinary events took place throughout the year. Some of the events included:

Continued success on the football field as the Jack-ets advanced as underdogs past bi-district area and then lost in the regional playoff game.

People, who had been nobodys ... suddenly became SOMEBODYS ...

Seniors got involved in the presidential elections ...

Drugs were almost unheard of around campus for a long time ... then there was the million dollar bust involving some Yankees and a midnight aircraft ...

Fights took place between freshmen and seniors ... and some freshmen won ...

Jessica McClure drew all of West Texas and the world a little closer ... and the fans at Walton Field cheered as her rescue was announced ...

Girls continued to call boys and ask for dates ...

Students began thinking about their futures ... and even began preparing for college ...

Sophomores and freshmen passed their driving tests ...

A KHS Homecoming balloon was found in Anthony, Kansas ...

Homecoming dance was a huge success ...

And We ALL survived until May 27 and graduation!

Amen
