

9th Jacket Crew Gains Experience

The freshman team gave young Yellow-Jackets the chance to gain valuable playing experience separate from the Junior Varsity team.

Although the ninth graders only had the opportunity to work in three games, they did show the coaching staff the future talent of Kermit High School.

The young Yellow Jackets split contests with Pecos, losing their opener 18-6 and then taking revenge in the second game 28-0. The ninth graders lost the finale against Crane 20-12.

Outstanding players for the freshmen were runningbacks Tony Halterman and Harry Dawson, linebackers Arturo Morales and Steve Chavarria, and linemen Martin Hernandez and Oscar Juarez. Darrell Pando started at tight end and defensive end, while Jason Hicks and Saul Rodriguez were two-way starters for the Jackets.

Freshman coaches Dave Swanson and Ronny Stooksberry explain the next play to Martin Hernandez, Jesse Alvarado and Arthur Morales.
