

The KHS Varsity basketball team battled throughout the 1988 season, both winning and losing, but continued to play with the Yellow Jacket Spirit and enthusiasm.

James Swisher led the team in points, field goals, and rebounds. Reggie Gibson led the team in free-throws, steals and assists.

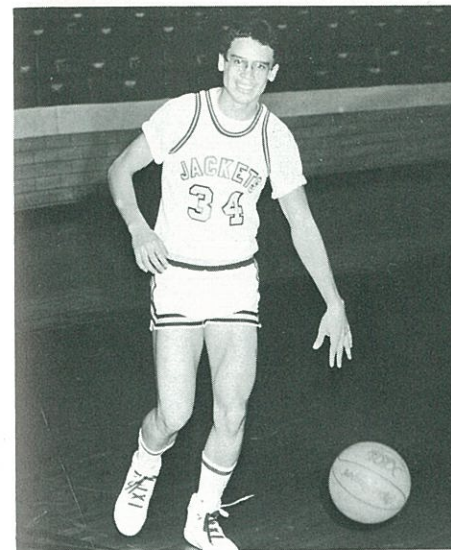

The first three games of the 87-88 season were in Kermit. The first game was against Pecos and Kermit won 60-54. The second was against Denver City and Kermit won 67-62 in overtime. The third game was against the Monahans Lobos and Kermit won in overtime, 64-61. Kermit then met Denver City for the second time and won again, 54-53.

Kermit met Fabens for the first district game and won 72-54. The Jackets then played Clint and won 59-51.

The first district loss was to Greenwood: 48-57. The KHS cagers then defeated Alpine 60-51 and Crane 57-47.

The second district loss also came to Fabens, 39-49.

As the second half continued, Kermit won 62-50 over Clint, 58-47 over Alpine and 41-39 over Crane in overtime.

The two losses placed the Kermit squad in second place. A practice game against Morton ended with the KHS crew on the short end: 55-65.

Kermit represented the district in bi-district play challenged Brownfield. The Cubs won 84-67.
