Dancing to a "country two-step" are Dai Ann Knight and Marc Parks — even though the tune isn't one by Bocephus.

Couples Bobby Naranjo and his sister Lisa; Michael Heredia and Dire Heath; and David Chacon and Terri Richardson show they can keep the beat.

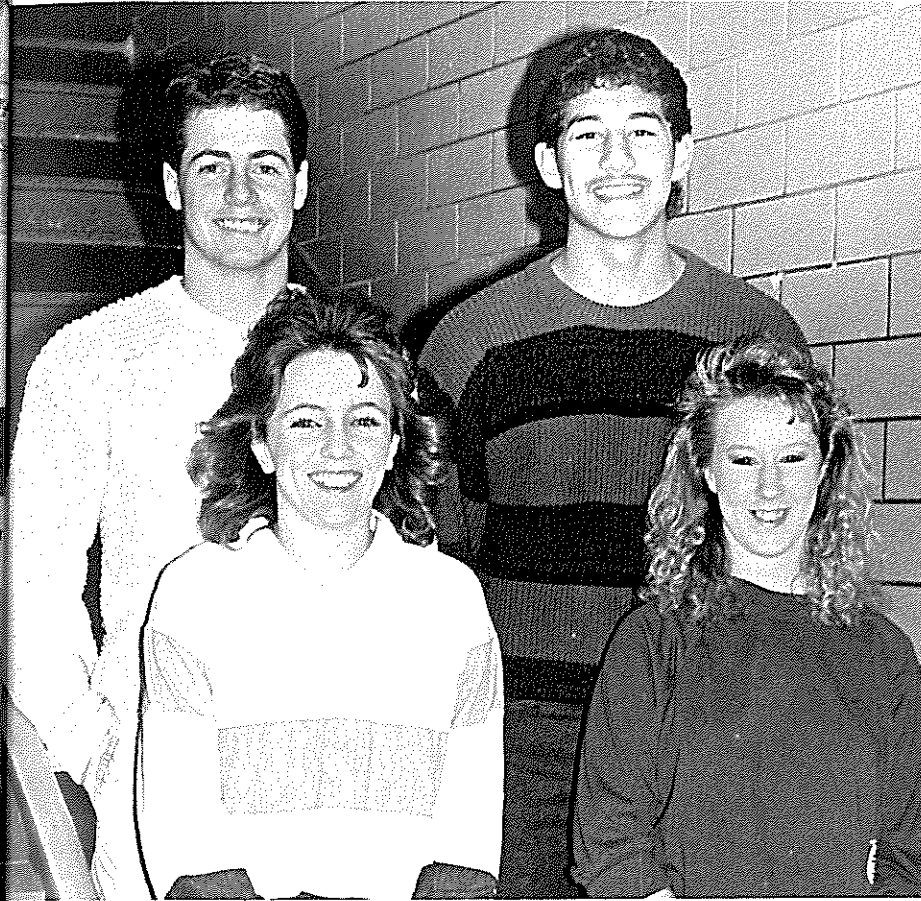

Armando Rivera, Rachel Chavez, and Martha Cano seem to be enjoying listening to the music at the '89 Prom.

Dancing to a slow tune are Steve Chavarria and Geniva Velasquez; Jonas Edwards and Janelle Mullen; and Christina Rios and Corey Clark.

Juniors Are Leaders At KHS

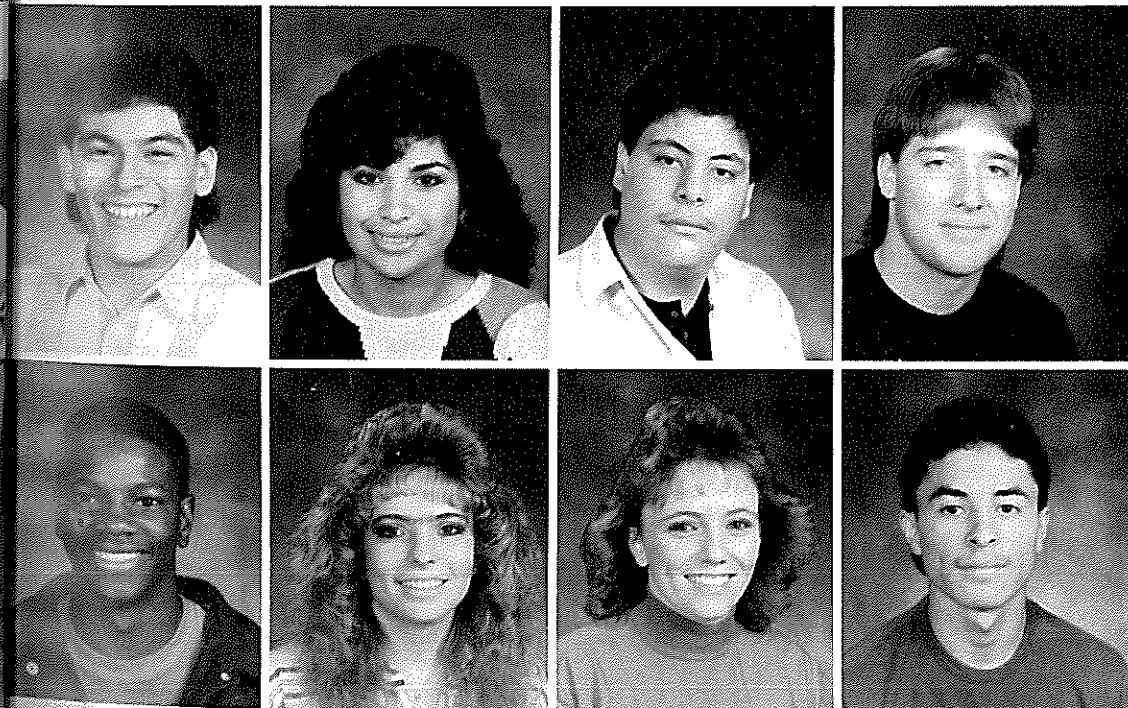

Junior Class officers were President Shawna Bowerman, Vice President Malissa Simonds, Secretary Mitchell Melendez, and Treasurer Curtis Hudson.

The Juniors finally became upper classmen. To keep them occupied and to make money, they conducted a "Heart to Heart" computer dating match-up. For several days the computer-chosen-dates were the ONLY topic of conversation. Another big project was preparing for the Junior-Senior Prom; where to have it, theme, decorations and which Disco to hire.

Juniors also were finally able to order their class rings. By participating in the pep rally Lip-sync skit, the homecoming float and the sign contest the Juniors made their school spirit known.

The 11th graders of KHS are now patiently waiting for their senior year.
