

Jamarsha Ballard - KHS Homecoming Queen

Jamarsha Roshelle Ballard, senior, has attended Kermit schools for 12 years. She is the daughter of Jimmy and Verda Ballard of 747 N. Poplar. She is an active member of the Trinity Christian Church of Kermit.

She has maintained a B average all four years of high school. She has been active in student council for two years as a representative.

This year she served on the Student Advisory Committee. She also was a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athlete's organization.

Jamarsha has been in the "K" band for three years.

She also enjoyed playing sports in High School; her freshman year, she lettered in track. She was active in volleyball for three years, her last two on the varsity. Jamarsha played varsity basketball for three years.

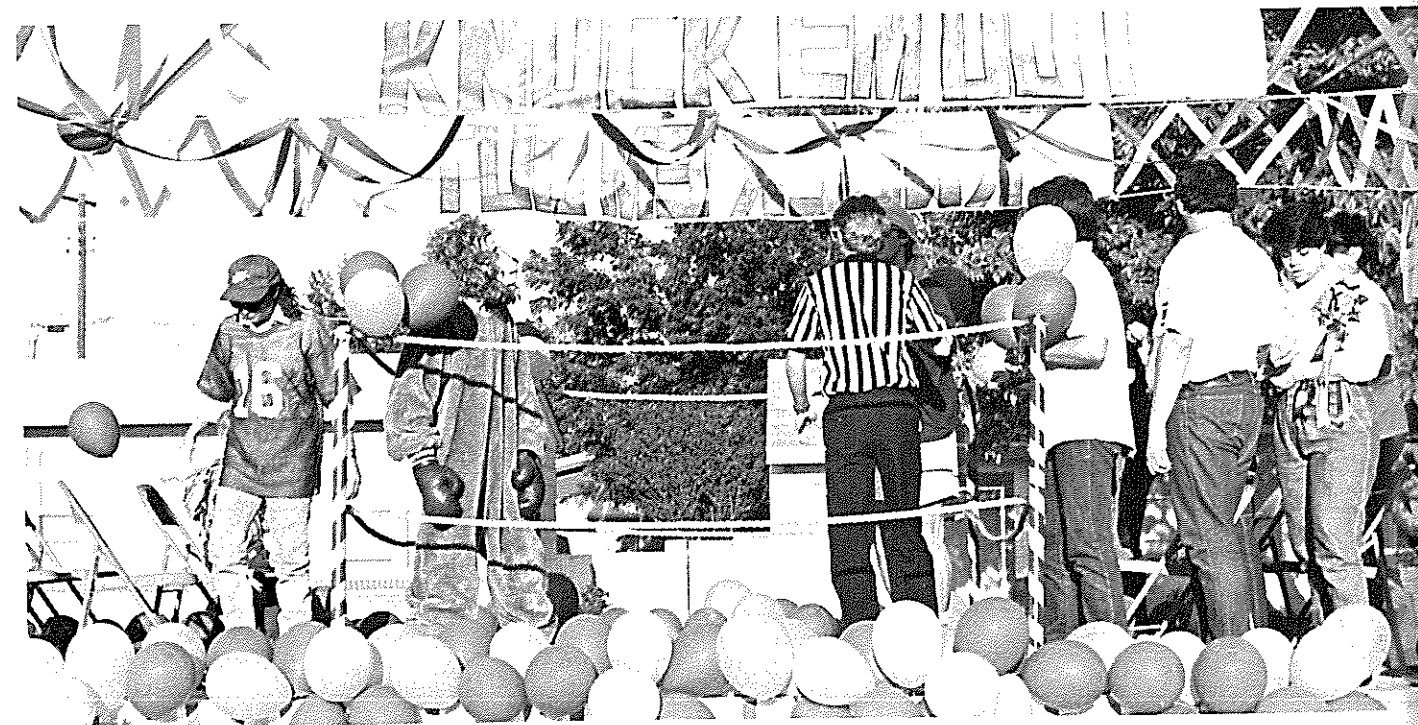

LaWanna Faye Thompson, daughter of Dorothy and L.V. Henry.

Amanda Marie Carrasco, daughter of Arabela and Pete Carrasco.

Marla Kay Dudley, daughter of Lynette Burleson and Leon Dudley.

Seniors participated in the Homecoming float contest. The seniors took a whole lot of time in preparing their "knock out" float. Seniors won first place in the contest.

Boosting spirits at the Homecoming bonfire is, "Killer K" Holly Greer.

Katie Gower, daughter of Lura and A.E. Gower.

The Homecoming parade, pinning on of colors, the bonfire, the dance, and the Homecoming pep rally were all great successes.

They were fun and raised everyone's spirits for the game against the Clint Lions.

One of the traditions of Homecoming at KHS is the pinning on of colors. Pictured here are Michelle Gonzales pinning on Benito Davila's colors and Melissa Soltero pinning on Damon Jackson's colors.
