

The 1989-90 One Act Play was "The Magician's Nephew." It was about a young boy, Digory, who had adventures to different lands by putting different shaped and colored rings on. Digory's uncle Andrew, the magician, made the rings from dust. Digory and his playmate, Polly, visited lands with old queens and many animals.

The cast of "The Magicians Nephew" consisted of Andrew-Kevin Helmer, Aunt Letty-Stacy Overman, Digory-Grant Helmer, Polly-Andrea Lowe, Queen Jadis-Dawn Hair, Aslin (the lion)-Clary Cutrell, Monkey-Tessa Taylor, Rabbit-Cristi Roman, Bear-Lee Beth Knight.

The One Act crew performed in Big Spring. Named to the all star cast, were Kevin Helmer and Dawn Hair. Andrea Lowe made honorable mention.

Kevin Helmer (Andrew) talks to Stacy Overman (Letty) about their sister, in the 1989-90 KHS One Act Play.

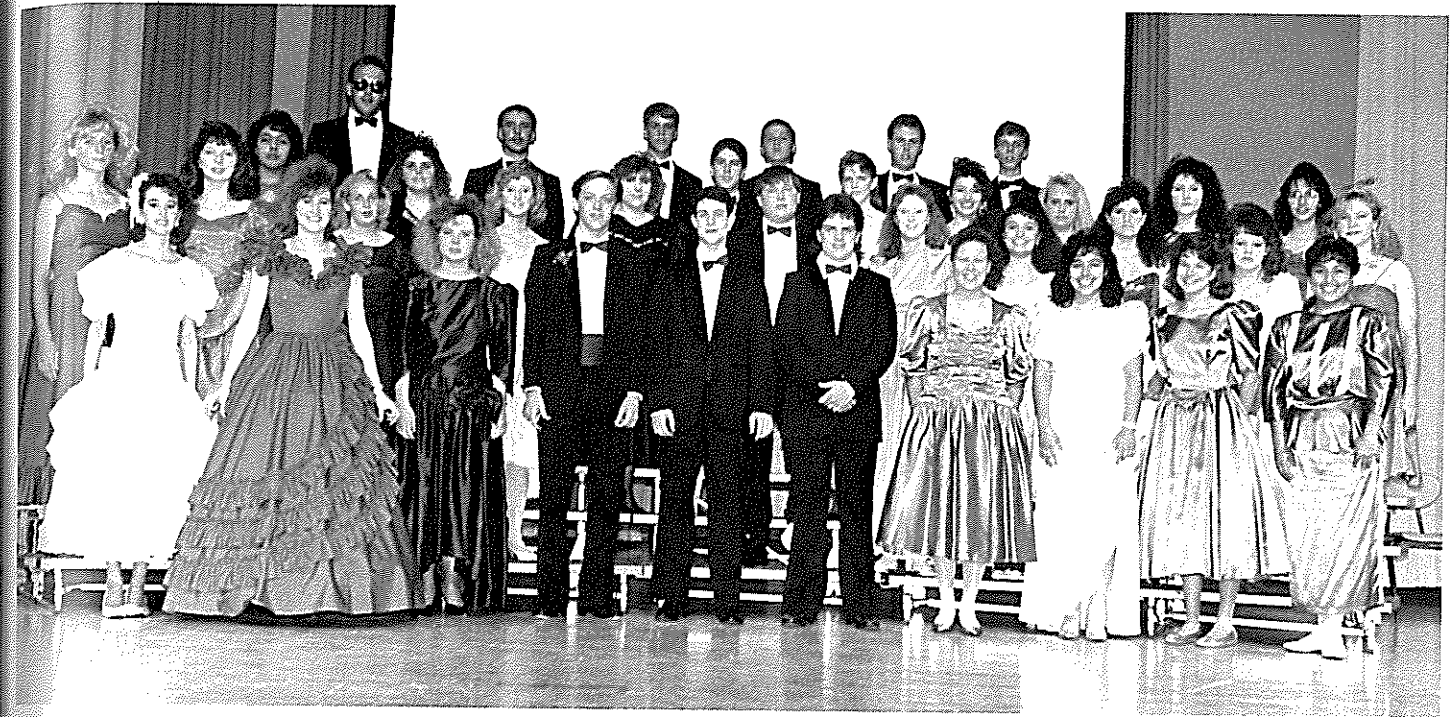

Kevin Helmer (Andrew) casts a spell to send people to another world as he performs in "The Magician's Nephew."

Clary Cutrell (the lion) tells Dawn Hair (queen Jadis) to leave the world of Narnia, during the play "The Magician's Nephew."

End-Of-School Musical

Featured in the annual End-of-School Musical was the KHS Yellow Jacket Choir. They performed immediately after the Dauber choirs. Singing in KHS choir were FRONT ROW Sarina Palmer, Jenni Watson, Dawn Hair, Kevin Helmer, Charlie Gibson, Eric Handlin, Debra Sims, Lori Naranjo, Andrea Lowe, and Rosa Flores. SECOND ROW were Jennifer Overstreet, Robin Gray, Tessa Taylor, Jana Dunn, Aaron Hensley, Tiffany Taylor, Christi Roman, Elizabeth Kennelley, Shawna Ferguson, and Brandy White. THIRD ROW were Arabela Valenzuela, De'ona Way, Jana Dunn, Travis Peeler, Brandi Paukette, Jamie Cotton, Renee Dunlap, Stacy Overman, and Rebecca Padilla. FOURTH ROW were Dennis Bliss, Corey Tramel, Joe Shaffer, Grant Helmer, Max Spangler, and Chad Durham.

This year's choir beau was Kevin Helmer and the choir sweetheart was Rosa Flores.

Seniors were also recognized at the End-of-School musical. They were Kevin Helmer, Arabela Valenzuela, Jana Dunn, Dawn Hair, and Chad Durham.