

Volleyball: Dauber Style!

Playing for the 8th grade team were FRONT ROW Sidia Garcia, Niki Roman, Amy Acosta, Shelly Ramos, Monica Aranda, Angela Lujan and Clarissa Towns. MIDDLE ROW Veronica Montez, Mariza Madrid, Jessica Rivera, Rina Berzoza, Isabel Gomez, Cecelia Towns, Tabitha Navarro and Robin Tramel. BACK ROW Corinne McLem, Marci Parks, Pam Abila, Marcela Alvarado, Irma Cobos, Marissa Robledo, and Coach Kelly Hutchinson.

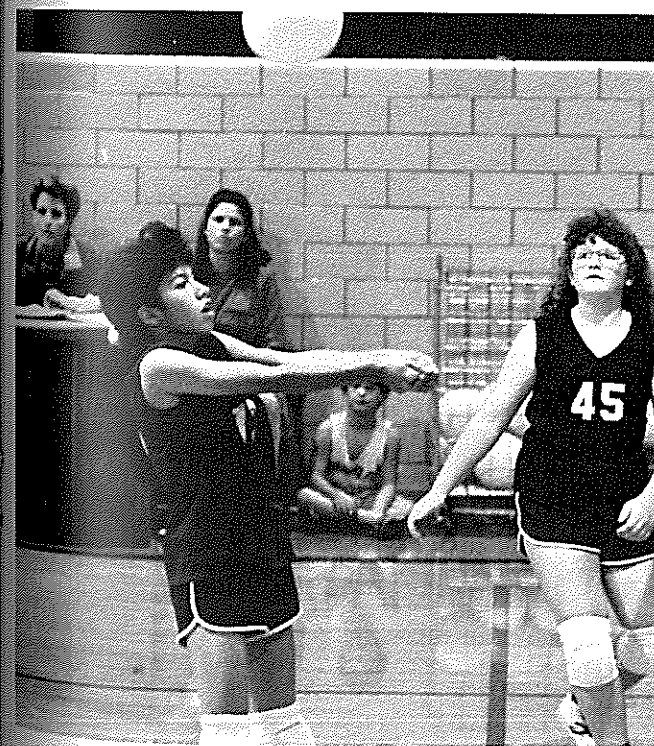

The 7th grade team consisted of FRONT ROW Haley Parson, Melissa Bliss, Miriam Porras, Mary Bell, Shay Maledon, Tanya Aranda, Sandy Neal and Corina Montez. MIDDLE ROW Shannon Jackson, Stephanie Ward, Victoria Saucedo, Sadie Aranda, Amanda McGill, Jesse Carrasco and Esther Montez. BACK ROW Carrie Campbell, Autumn Roberts, Stephanie Powers, Mindy Stansel, Jessica Wallace, Linda Carter and Coach Peggy Eubank.

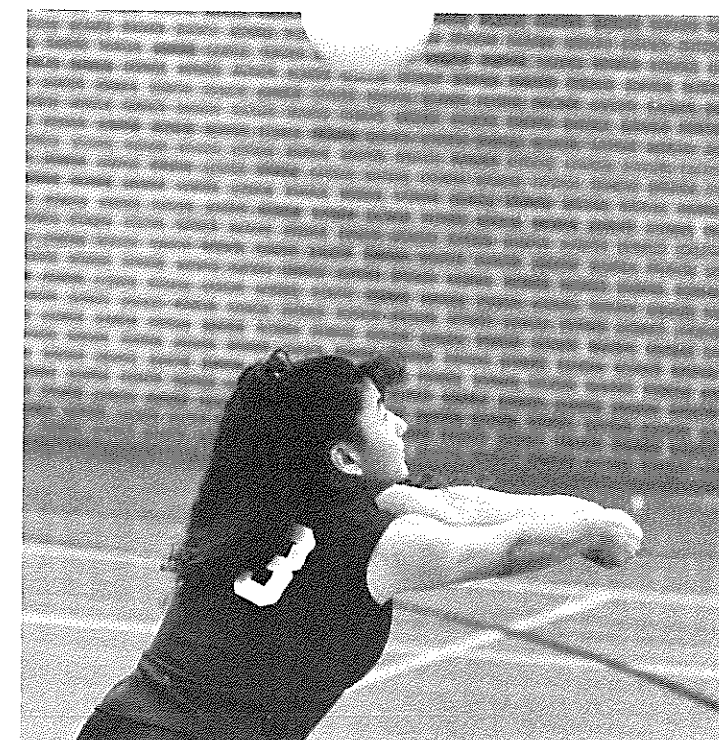

Spiking the ball for the Dauber team is eighth grade hitter Marci Parks.

The seventh grade volleyball team had a record of 5-8. They placed third in the Crane Tournament. "The girls made a lot of improvement. They are a good group to work with, and they are very coachable," replied Coach Peggy Eubank.

The eighth grade girls had an outstanding season with only one loss. They placed first in the Pecos Tournament and won consolation at the Crane Tournament. "We had a very successful season. The girls worked hard and really improved their skills a lot. I was very proud of them," said Coach Hutchinson.

Seventh grader, Tanya Aranda, bumps the ball while Autumn Roberts is there to assist.

Digging the ball for another point is eighth grader, Jessica Rivera.