

Varsity Cheerleaders Back The Jackets

Cheerleaders must be eager, enthusiastic, responsible and dedicated among other things. The KHS Cheerleaders were all of these things and more.

Homecoming is always an important part of the year at KHS. The cheerleaders organized the pep rally and decorated the school. They made homecoming a success for students and exes.

Enthusiasm is an important characteristic for a cheerleader to possess. The KHS cheerleaders have a lot of enthusiasm. They never let their spirits drop.

Eagerness to succeed drove the cheerleaders to always stand behind their team. They provided the Jackets with support. They went out on a limb to back their team.

Responsibility and dedication were evident in the KHS squad. They took on many challenges and followed them through till the end. They were dedicated to supporting KHS.

The varsity cheerleading squad for 1991-92 included STANDING Shelly Knight, Amy Fires, and Amy Willingham THIRD ROW Lori Naranjo and Andrea Lowe SECOND ROW Debra Heredia and Leslie Hager BOTTOM ROW Dorimina Carrasco.

Dorimina Carrasco, Amy Willingham, Shelly Knight, Lori Naranjo, Nikki Riley, Leslie Hager, Amy Fires, Jennifer Watson, and Debra Heredia lead the school in "Get Fired Up."

Leslie Hager, Amy Willingham, Amy Fires, Debra Heredia, Naomi Sanchez, Andrea Lowe, Shelly Knight, and Lori Naranjo prepare to catch Dorimina Carrasco after a basket toss.

Nikki Riley
Little J

Jenny Watson
Killer K

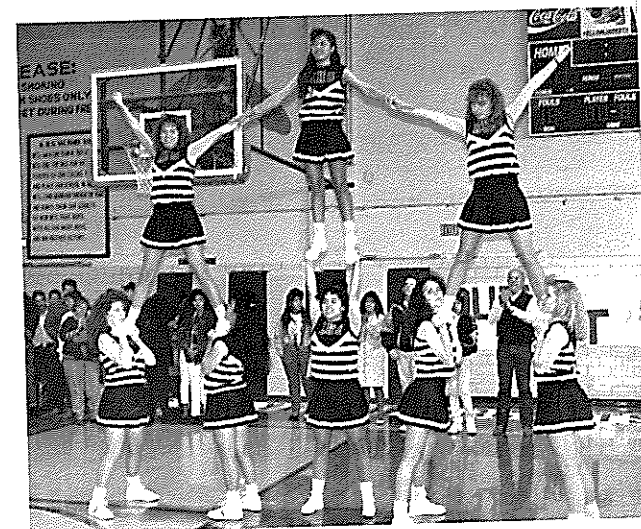

Naomi Sanchez
Alternate

Sara Easley
Sponsor

Amy Willingham, Leslie Hager, Shelly Knight, Lori Naranjo, Debra Heredia, and Dorimina Carrasco raise the spirits.

Leslie Hager, Debra Heredia, Lori Naranjo, Amy Fires, Amy Willingham, Andrea Lowe, Dorimina Carrasco, and Shelly Knight end a cheer with a stunt.