

1993 Diamond Crew

The 1993 Yellow Jackets overcame tremendous odds to win a spot in the playoffs. After losing their first two district contests to Reagan County and Colorado City, the "Swarm" rallied to win four of the last five games to capture the runner-up spot in district 6-AAA. They defeated District Champions Reagan County 13-3 in five innings, Greenwood 14-2 and Colorado City 10-1 to end the regular season. Their only setback was a 19-18 loss to Greenwood. The regular season ended with a two way tie between the Jackets and Colorado City. The Jackets won the playoff contest 17-7. The Jackets ended the regular season 11-3, 4-3 in district.
