

Shown from left to right is Ms. McDonald's class. Lewis Galindo, Juan Alacron, Jaime Venegas, Corky Rivera, Lisa Soltero. They are holding crafts which they have made in class.

What have the students in Ms. McDonald's class been up to? They have been pretty busy building crafts which are to be sold at an organization reunion in El Paso. The money that is raised will be donated to the Texas Scottish Rite Hospital in Dallas. It's a small class, but they're doing a good deed for this children's hospital. Not only have they been busy raising money for the hospital, they have made many items during the year to be sold. They also made enough money to go on a little trip, April 8 and 9, to Prude Ranch. "We had a blast, we rode horses, swam, went to the fort, and learned about different types of soils", said Ms. McDonald.
